
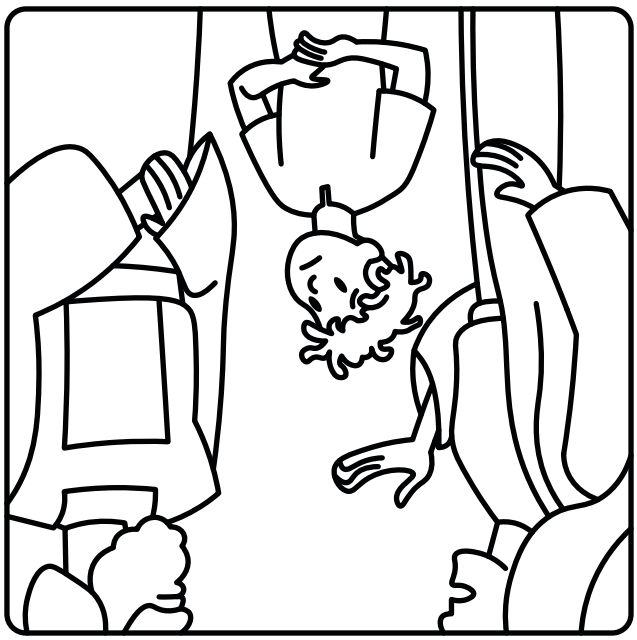
1. Hello! My name is Jeremiah, and I'm a prophet. I've been sharing God's messages of justice and hope to my community since I was a kid. I still remember the day God called me and changed my life forever...

2. It came out of nowhere. I heard a soft voice whisper, "Jeremiah! I've been waiting for this day since before you were born. I can't wait to tell you the special, holy plans I have in mind for you!"



3. Special plans? For me? I couldn't believe it. In all the stories of my ancestors, only grown-ups were given special jobs by God. I was just a kid! What did I know about God? Would anyone even listen to me?

4. God saw I was nervous. "It doesn't matter if you're a kid!" God said, "All that matters is I'll always be right there, looking after you. Together we'll weed out what's not working in the world and plant new, beautiful things."
