Avi Stein is the Associate Organist and Chorusmaster at Trinity Church Wall Street. He performs a wide range of repertoire, from specializing in the avant-garde of the 17th century with his group Quicksilver to presenting the complete survey of Johann Sebastian Bach's sacred music, and preparing the Grammy Award nominated Trinity Choir for performances of music from the Renaissance to recent festivals celebrating new commissions. He is Artistic Director of The Helicon Foundation, a period instrument chamber music concert series, which has been invited to perform at Lincoln Center's Mostly Mozart Festival, Yale University, the Morgan Library and Caramoor. Avi teaches continuo and baroque vocal repertoire at The Juilliard School where he recently conducted a production of Purcell's Dido and Aeneas, including a tour to the Opera Royale in the palace of Versailles. He performed on the 2015 Grammy Award winning recording by the Boston Early Music Festival of Marc-Antoine Charpentier's La Descente d'Orphée aux Enfers and La Couronne de Fleurs. He has directed the International Baroque Academy at Musiktheater Bavaria and the young artists' program at the Carmel Bach Festival, and he has conducted a variety of ensembles including the Opera Français de New York and a critically acclaimed annual series called The 4x4 Festival.
