The Sunday of the Resurrection:

Easter Day

April 4, 2021, 9:15am
Mission
In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

Vision
We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

Core Values

Faith
“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —MATTHEW 17:20

Integrity
“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —PHILIPPIANS 4:8

Inclusiveness
“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —GALATIANS 3:28

Compassion
“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.”
—MATTHEW 14:14

Social Justice
“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.”
—MICAI 6:8

Stewardship
“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —GENESIS 41:29-30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.
By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to Trinity Church

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ.

About this Service

Family Service

As you participate in this service, the language will feel at once simplified and familiar. Each week, we will pray, sing, and reflect on the Word of God in language that is intentionally accessible for children. At the same time, we draw on the essential elements of Episcopal worship—the Lord’s Prayer, the collects, the confession and the creed—learning together to pattern our prayer after the Book of Common Prayer.

In the Baptismal Covenant, the Church vows to support the spiritual development of each new member of the Body of Christ. We often think of this in terms of adults supporting children in their faith formation. In truth, each of us, no matter our age, can help support the spiritual growth of every other member of our church community. One of the many ways we do this is by participating together in worship.

By worshipping together in this way, we can help our children experience the unshakable love of God in Jesus Christ. And adults, in turn, may be surprised to find themselves supported in their lives in Christ by the young people of our community.

Will you who witness these vows do all in your power to support these persons in their life in Christ? We will. (BCP 1979, p. 303).

Gathering Prayer

At the sound of the bell, please stand as you are able.

The Officiant welcomes the people and invites them to prayer.

All Dear God,
Thank you so much
for bringing us to this time and place.
Please be with us
as we listen, pray, and learn.
And help us remember that,
no matter what,
you will always love us.
Amen.
Opening Hymn

1 Jesus Christ is risen to-day, Alleluia!
2 Hymns of praise then let us sing, Alleluia!
3 But the pains which he endured, Alleluia!
4 Sing we to our God above, Alleluia!

our triumphant holy day, Alleluia!
unto Christ, our heavenly King, Alleluia!
our salvation have procured; Alleluia!
praise eternal as his love; Alleluia!

who did once upon the cross, Alleluia!
who endured the cross and grave, Alleluia!
now above the sky he's King, Alleluia!
praise him, all ye heavenly host, Alleluia!

suffer to redeem our loss, Alleluia!
sinners to redeem and save, Alleluia!
where the angels ever sing, Alleluia!
Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, Alleluia!

Words: Latin, 14th cent.; tr. Lyra Davidica, 1708, alt.; st. 4, Charles Wesley (1707-1788)
Music: Easter Hymn, from Lyra Davidica, 1708; adapt. The Compleat Psalmodist, 1749, alt.
Acclamation and the Collect of the Day

Officiant Alleluia! Christ is risen!
People The Lord is risen indeed. Alleluia!

Officiant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Officiant Let us pray.

Almighty God, who through your only-begotten Son Jesus Christ overcame death and opened to us the gate of everlasting life: Grant that we, who celebrate with joy the day of the Lord’s resurrection, may be raised from the death of sin by your life-giving Spirit; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

All Amen.
Scripture Acclamation

Music: Caribbean melody; arr. Hal Hopson (b. 1933)
The Reading

Mark 16:1–8

Read by Felicia Eve

Please be seated.

Reader

A Reading from the Gospel according to Mark.

When the sabbath was over, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome bought spices, so that they might go and anoint Jesus. And very early on the first day of the week, when the sun had risen, they went to the tomb. They had been saying to one another, “Who will roll away the stone for us from the entrance to the tomb?” When they looked up, they saw that the stone, which was very large, had already been rolled back. As they entered the tomb, they saw a young man, dressed in a white robe, sitting on the right side; and they were alarmed. But he said to them, “Do not be alarmed; you are looking for Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified. He has been raised; he is not here. Look, there is the place they laid him. But go, tell his disciples and Peter that he is going ahead of you to Galilee; there you will see him, just as he told you.” So they went out and fled from the tomb, for terror and amazement had seized them; and they said nothing to anyone, for they were afraid.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

People

Thanks be to God.

Response

The Rev. Matthew A. Welsch

Priest for Youth and Family

The Creed

TCWS

Please stand as you are able.

All

I believe in God the Father, who has made me and all the world.
I believe in God the Son, who loves me and saves me.
I believe in God the Holy Spirit, who is in me and all creation. Amen.

Confession and Absolution

TCWS, based on BCP p. 360

Officiant

Let us confess our sins to God and one another.

All

Loving God,
Sometimes we do things we shouldn’t do.
Sometimes we don’t do the things we should do.
We are sorry.
Forgive us for our mistakes.
Help us make good choices.
And remind us that you love us.

Officiant

Dear friends: the good news is that God will always love you, no matter what! And may God—Father, Son, and Holy Spirit—forgive us now and always help us to make good choices.

All

Amen.
The Prayers of the People

Preacher  Let us join together in prayer either out loud or silently.
          Let us pray for the Church—for our bishops, priests, deacons, and all who follow Jesus.
          We say, “God, inspire us to be your Church.”

People    God, inspire us to be your Church.

Preacher  Let us pray for our country—for the president, our governor, and our mayor—and all who lead in our communities.
          We say, “God, guide our leaders.”

People    God, guide our leaders.

Preacher  Let us pray for our community—for our families, our neighbors, our city.
          We say, “God, bless and protect our community.”

People    God, bless and protect our community.

Preacher  Let us pray for the world—for all plants and animals, for the seas and skies, for all people around the world.
          We say, “God, bless the whole earth.”

People    God, bless the whole earth.

Preacher  Let us pray for those people or animals who are sick or need help. For whom do we pray?

          Pause
          We say, “Please, God, help us.”

People    Please, God, help us.

Preacher  Let us pray for people or situations that concern or worry us. What worries can we share with God?

          Pause
          We say, “Help us, God, we trust in you.”

People    Help us, God, we trust in you.

Preacher  Let us now say thank you to God for all the good things that happen in our lives. Are there any special things that we are grateful for?

          Pause
          We say, “Thank you so much, God!”

People    Thank you so much, God!
The Lord’s Prayer

Officiant: Let us draw all our prayers together into one, using the words Jesus taught us:

All: Our Father, who art in heaven,
     hallowed be thy Name,
     thy kingdom come,
     thy will be done,
     on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Closing Prayer

All: God be in my head,
     God be in my heart.
     God be in my left hand,
     God be in my right hand,
     God be in my whole life.

The Blessing and Dismissal

Officiant: The God of peace, who brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus Christ, the great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant: Make you perfect in every good work to do his will, working in you that which is well-pleasing in his sight; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you and remain with you always.

All: Amen.

Officiant: Let us bless the Lord. Alleluia, alleluia!

People: Thanks be to God. Alleluia, alleluia!
Closing Hymn

This Week

Tuesday, April 6

COVID-19 Community Conversations
11:30am, Online
Mental Health Equity and Resilience with DOHMH

The COVID-19 pandemic is a worldwide shared traumatic experience that disrupts and affects our families, friends, and communities. In New York City and nationally, people of color are disproportionately affected by COVID-19. To address the mental health challenges brought by the pandemic and structural racism in our city, the Department of Health and Mental Hygiene (DOHMH) is providing free virtual presentations to our Trinity community in self-care, coping skills, and ways to build individual and community resilience. Join us for this one-hour workshop at 11:30am on the first Tuesday or at 6:30pm on the third Tuesday of every month. RSVP for free at trinitywallstreet.org/covidconversations.

Thursday, April 8

A Mayoral Town Hall on Supportive Housing
6–8pm, Online
A NEW New York

Join the Supportive Housing Network of New York, in partnership with Trinity Church Wall Street, Enterprise Community Partners, and the National Association of Social Workers-New York City Chapter, for this free live-streamed mayoral town hall. Amidst an ongoing homelessness crisis and global pandemic, key solutions to homelessness and economic recovery need to be at the center of all mayoral candidates’ platforms. This town hall will provide candidates an opportunity to discuss how they intend to address the homelessness crisis and ensure equitable development of supportive and affordable housing in New York City. Register at bit.ly/aNEWnewyork.

Friday, April 9

Trinity Book Club
6:30pm–7:30pm, Online

Trinity Book Club meets weekly to discuss the mysteries of the Christian faith through the medium of literature. In Eastertide, we’ll read former Archbishop of Canterbury Rowan Williams’ Candles in the Dark and Hannah Steele’s Living His Story: Revealing the Extraordinary Love of God in Ordinary Ways. Summerlee Staten and Dane Miller will lead the discussion. Register at trinitywallstreet.org/bookclub.

Next Sunday

Children’s Time
10am, Online

Children’s Time returns. Children ages 4 through 5th grade and their families are invited to learn together. We’ll begin with an opening assembly, including a prayer and a song, then break into small groups for a time of exploration and community. Register at trinitywallstreet.org/children.

Discovery: Evicted in the American City
Sundays, April 11–May 16, 10am, Online

Join the Discovery community as we explore the complex causes and impact of eviction on our neighbors and consider what it means for our Christian vocation. Our learning and reflection will center on Matthew Desmond’s Pulitzer Prize-winning book, Evicted: Poverty and Profit in the American City, with the author joining us on April 25. Learn more at trinitywallstreet.org/evicted.

Congregational Voice
“But those who wait for the Lord shall renew their strength, they shall mount up with wings like eagles, they shall run and not be weary, they shall walk and not faint” (Isaiah 40:31). I grew up Protestant Episcopal. I knew and could/can recite almost every word of the service, by heart. Stephen’s Episcopal Church was a major part of my life; generations of my family attended that tiny church. I haven’t been there in a while. Afterwards, I participated in the services at All Saints/Beverly Hills, amongst other big churches. Because of the pandemic, I capture online what’s motivational.

FLOWERS
To donate flowers, email Flowers@trinitywallstreet.org.

This service is based on The Word of God from The Holy Eucharist Rite Two, which begins on page 355 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Scripture readings are appointed by the Revised Common Lectionary (Episcopal) and are excerpted from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible. Other liturgical elements may include materials compiled by Trinity Church staff (TCWS) from contemporary liturgical resources. An asterisk (*) denotes that the text is adapted from the original source material. Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982, Lift Every Voice and Sing II (LEVAS), Voices Found (VF), and Wonder, Love, and Praise (WLP).

In an effort to reach a broad audience, Trinity Church Wall Street live streams its services and events and records them for broadcast via the internet. Your attendance at a service or event constitutes your consent to be included in any filming, photographing, audio recording, or broadcast and for any other use in whole or in part, including publicity and promotion. If you wish to attend but prefer to avoid being filmed, please sit in the back pews on the side aisles.

As part of Trinity Wall Street's commitment to responsible stewardship of the earth's resources, this publication is printed on paper that is manufactured with 100% post-consumer fibers.

Assistive Listening devices are available for this service and are located at the welcome table.
