Mission

In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

Vision

We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

Core Values

Faith
“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —MATTHEW 17:20

Integrity
“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —PHILIPPIANS 4:8

Inclusiveness
“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —GALATIANS 3:28

Compassion
“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.”
—MATTHEW 14:14

Social Justice
“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.”
—MICAH 6:8

Stewardship
“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —GENESIS 41:29-30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.

By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to Trinity Church

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone's voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ.

About this Service

Family Service

As you participate in this service, the language will feel at once simplified and familiar. Each week, we will pray, sing, and reflect on the Word of God in language that is intentionally accessible for children. At the same time, we draw on the essential elements of Episcopal worship—the Lord’s Prayer, the collects, the confession and the creed—learning together to pattern our prayer after the Book of Common Prayer.

In the Baptismal Covenant, the Church vows to support the spiritual development of each new member of the Body of Christ. We often think of this in terms of adults supporting children in their faith formation. In truth, each of us, no matter our age, can help support the spiritual growth of every other member of our church community. One of the many ways we do this is by participating together in worship.

By worshipping together in this way, we can help our children experience the unshakable love of God in Jesus Christ. And adults, in turn, may be surprised to find themselves supported in their lives in Christ by the young people of our community.

Will you who witness these vows do all in your power to support these persons in their life in Christ? We will.

(BCP 1979, p. 303).

Acclamation and the Collect of the Day

Officiant: Alleluia! Christ is risen!
People: The Lord is risen indeed. Alleluia!

Officiant: The Lord be with you.
People: And also with you.

Officiant: Let us pray.

O God, the King of glory, you have exalted your only Son Jesus Christ with great triumph to your kingdom in heaven: Do not leave us comfortless, but send us your Holy Spirit to strengthen us, and exalt us to that place where our Savior Christ has gone before; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, in glory everlasting.

All: Amen.

The Reading

John 17:6–19

Read by Mila Zotovich

Please be seated.

Reader

A Reading from the Gospel according to John.

Jesus prayed for his disciples, saying, “I have made your name known to those whom you gave me from the world. They were yours, and you gave them to me, and they have kept your word. Now they know that everything you have given me is from you; for the words that you gave to me I have given to them, and they have received them and know in truth that I came from you; and they have believed that you sent me. I am asking on their behalf; I am not asking on behalf of the world, but on behalf of those whom you gave me, because they are yours. All mine are yours, and yours are mine; and I have been glorified in them. And now I am no longer in the world, but they are in the world, and I am coming to you. Holy Father, protect them in your name that you have given me, so that they may be one, as we are one. While I was with them, I protected them in your name that you have given me. I guarded them, and not one of them was lost except the one destined to be lost, so that the scripture might be fulfilled. But now I am coming to you, and I speak these things in the world so that they may have my joy made complete in themselves. I have given them your word, and the world has hated them because they do not belong to the world, just as I do not belong to the world. I am not asking you to take them out of the world, but I ask you to protect them from the evil one. They do not belong to the world, just as I do not belong to the world. Sanctify them in the truth; your word is truth. As you have sent me into the world, so I have sent them into the world. And for their sakes I sanctify myself, so that they also may be sanctified in truth.”

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

Thanks be to God.

The Creed

Please stand as you are able.

All

I believe in God the Father, who has made me and all the world.
I believe in God the Son, who loves me and saves me.
I believe in God the Holy Spirit, who is in me and all creation. Amen.
The Prayers of the People

Preacher  Let us join together in prayer either out loud or silently.
          Let us pray for the Church—for our bishops, priests, deacons, and all who follow Jesus.
          We say, “God, inspire us to be your Church.”

People  God, inspire us to be your Church.

Preacher  Let us pray for our country—for the president, our governor, and our mayor—and all who lead in our communities.
          We say, “God, guide our leaders.”

People  God, guide our leaders.

Preacher  Let us pray for our community—for our families, our neighbors, our city.
          We say, “God, bless and protect our community.”

People  God, bless and protect our community.

Preacher  Let us pray for the world—for all plants and animals, for the seas and skies, for all people around the world. We pray especially for people or animals who are sick or need help.
          For whom do we pray?
          Pause
          We say, “God, bless the whole earth.”

People  God, bless the whole earth.

Preacher  Let us pray for people or situations that concern or worry us. What worries can we share with God?
          Pause
          We say, “Help us, God, we trust in you.”

People  Help us, God, we trust in you.

Preacher  Let us now say thank you to God for all the good things that happen in our lives. Are there any special things that we are grateful for?
          Pause
          We say, “Thank you so much, God!”

People  Thank you so much, God!
Confession and Absolution

Officiant  Let us confess our sins to God and one another.

All  Loving God,
Sometimes we do things we shouldn’t do.
Sometimes we don’t do the things we should do.
We are sorry.
Forgive us for our mistakes.
Help us make good choices.
And remind us that you love us.

Officiant  Dear friends: the good news is that God will always love you—and all of us—no matter what!
And may God—Father, Son, and Holy Spirit—forgive us now and always.

All  Amen.

The Lord’s Prayer

Officiant  Let us draw all our prayers together into one, using the words Jesus taught us:

All  Our Father, who art in heaven,
    hallowed be thy Name,
    thy kingdom come,
    thy will be done,
    on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those
who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.
Hallelujah! We sing your praises! All our hearts are filled with gladness! Hallelujah! We sing your praises! All our hearts are filled with gladness!

Christ in love to us said: “I am wine, I am bread, I am wine, I am bread, give to all who thirst and hunger!” D.C.

Words: South African; Music: Halleluya! Pelo tso rona, South African
The Peace

Officiant    The peace of the Lord be always with you.
People      And also with you.

Pride365: Allyship with The Center
Wednesday, June 2, 11am, Online
A recent study conducted by The Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual & Transgender Center showed that companies suffer when their employees are not fully themselves at work. This common reality forces employees to adjust their actions and words to make their non-LGBTQ+ peers comfortable. By defining what it means to be an ally, reflecting on personal experiences, and outlining the impact allies can have on their peers, this workshop leaves participating employees with skills to make actionable change in their workplace environments to foster inclusivity. Co-sponsored by The Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual & Transgender Center. Information: trinitywallstreet.org/365.

Pride365: Intersectionality with The Center
Thursday, June 24, 11am, Online
Members of the LGBTQ+ workforce come from various backgrounds with different lived experiences and are not just defined by their sexual orientation or gender identity. In order to foster a truly inclusive environment, employees must be encouraged to be their full selves at work, and collaborate with colleagues across a multitude of identities. This workshop helps employees appreciate the diversity of others that extends beyond sexual orientation and gender identity—and become more deeply sensitive to the value that intersectionality can bring to a team and workplace. Co-sponsored by The Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual & Transgender Center. Information: trinitywallstreet.org/pride.

Congregational Voice
“Jesus looked at them carefully and said, “It’s impossible for human beings. But all things are possible for God” (Matthew 19:26 CEB). Some days the list of worldly woes that face us can really wear me down. This passage reminds me that although I am called to be an active participant in the Kingdom of God, and I relish that opportunity, the strength to do the work does not come from me, but from my deep love of God and my neighbor, and God’s everflowing, overflowing, reconciling love for me and all of creation. There is great hope in that. —The Rev. Michael Bird, Vicar, Trinity Church
