The Seventh Sunday of Easter

May 16, 2021, 11:15am
Mission
In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

Vision
We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

Core Values

Faith
“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —Matthew 17:20

Integrity
“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —Philippians 4:8

Inclusiveness
“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —Galatians 3:28

Compassion
“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.”
—Matthew 14:14

Social Justice
“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.”
—Micah 6:8

Stewardship
“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —Genesis 41:29-30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.
By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to Trinity Church

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ.

About this Service

Eastertide

Easter is the highest holiday of the Christian year—a celebration of the event that defines our Church: the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, fulfilling the scriptural foretelling of the Messiah. Like spring itself, the Paschal feast brings the promise of new life. The Easter Season, also known as Eastertide, will continue for 50 days until Pentecost, which occurs on May 23 this year.

After weeks of preparation and reflection, more joyful elements return to the liturgy. The confession is dormant throughout this jubilant season. Gloria, a song of praise, replaces the Trisagion, a supplication for mercy; and the word alleluia (“Praise the Lord”)—which has not been spoken during the past 40 days of Lent—is proclaimed enthusiastically, and will remain in acclamations, fractions, hymns, and dismissals throughout Eastertide.

The Entrance Rite

Choral Prelude

Arise, My Love
Julian Wachner (b. 1969)

Arise, my love, and come away. Arise, my love, my fair one.
For, lo, the winter is past, the rain is over and gone;
The flowers appear on the earth, and the time of the singing birds is come.
Set me as a seal upon your heart, as a seal upon your arm: for love is strong as death.
Many waters cannot quench love, neither can the floods drown it.
Arise, my love, my fair one. Arise, and come away.

—Song of Solomon 2:10–13, 8:6–7

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant  God be with you.
People  And also with you.
Celebrant  Let us pray.

O God, the King of glory, you have exalted your only Son Jesus Christ with great triumph to your kingdom in heaven: Do not leave us comfortless, but send us your Holy Spirit to strengthen us, and exalt us to that place where our Savior Christ has gone before; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, in glory everlasting.

All  Amen.

Please be seated.
The First Reading

Acts 1:15–17, 21–26

Read by Toni Foy

Reader

A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

In those days Peter stood up among the believers (together the crowd numbered about one hundred twenty persons) and said, “Friends, the scripture had to be fulfilled, which the Holy Spirit through David foretold concerning Judas, who became a guide for those who arrested Jesus—for he was numbered among us and was allotted his share in this ministry.

“So one of the men who have accompanied us during all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us, beginning from the baptism of John until the day when he was taken up from us—one of these must become a witness with us to his resurrection.” So they proposed two, Joseph called Barsabbas, who was also known as Justus, and Matthias. Then they prayed and said, “Lord, you know everyone's heart. Show us which one of these two you have chosen to take the place in this ministry and apostleship from which Judas turned aside to go to his own place.” And they cast lots for them, and the lot fell on Matthias; and he was added to the eleven apostles.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

Thanks be to God.

The Psalm

Psalm 1

BCP p. 585

Sung by the choir.

Choir

Happy are they who have not walked in the counsel of the wicked, *

nor lingered in the way of sinners,

nor sat in the seats of the scornful!

Their delight is in the law of the LORD, *

and they meditate on his law day and night.

They are like trees planted by streams of water, bearing fruit in due season, with leaves that do not wither; *

everything they do shall prosper.

It is not so with the wicked; *

they are like chaff which the wind blows away.

Therefore the wicked shall not stand upright when judgment comes, *

nor the sinner in the council of the righteous.

For the LORD knows the way of the righteous, *

but the way of the wicked is doomed.

Music: Edward Cuthbert Bairstow (1874-1946)
A Reading from the First Letter of John.

If we receive human testimony, the testimony of God is greater; for this is the testimony of God that he has testified to his Son. Those who believe in the Son of God have the testimony in their hearts. Those who do not believe in God have made him a liar by not believing in the testimony that God has given concerning his Son. And this is the testimony: God gave us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. Whoever has the Son has life; whoever does not have the Son of God does not have life.

I write these things to you who believe in the name of the Son of God, so that you may know that you have eternal life.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

Thanks be to God.

The Holy Gospel

Deacon
The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People
Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon
Jesus prayed for his disciples, saying, “I have made your name known to those whom you gave me from the world. They were yours, and you gave them to me, and they have kept your word. Now they know that everything you have given me is from you; for the words that you gave to me I have given to them, and they have received them and know in truth that I came from you; and they have believed that you sent me. I am asking on their behalf; I am not asking on behalf of the world, but on behalf of those whom you gave me, because they are yours. All mine are yours, and yours are mine; and I have been glorified in them. And now I am no longer in the world, but they are in the world, and I am coming to you. Holy Father, protect them in your name that you have given me, so that they may be one, as we are one. While I was with them, I protected them in your name that you have given me. I guarded them, and not one of them was lost except the one destined to be lost, so that the scripture might be fulfilled. But now I am coming to you, and I speak these things in the world so that they may have my joy made complete in themselves. I have given them your word, and the world has hated them because they do not belong to the world, just as I do not belong to the world. I am not asking you to take them out of the world, but I ask you to protect them from the evil one. They do not belong to the world, just as I do not belong to the world. Sanctify them in the truth; your word is truth. As you have sent me into the world, so I have sent them into the world. And for their sakes I sanctify myself, so that they also may be sanctified in truth.”

People
Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Nicene Creed

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant We believe in one God,
All the Father, the Almighty,
make of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.
The Prayers of the People

Reader
In hope and gladness, let us pray to God, the Creator of all.

Silence

That our risen Savior may fill us with the joy of his glorious and life-giving resurrection,
We pray to the living God.

People
Hear our prayer.

Reader
That those who lead and those who serve in the Church throughout the world—especially Michael our Presiding Bishop, and Andrew, Allen, and Mary our diocesan bishops—may be refreshed and encouraged by Christ's victory,
We pray to the living God.

People
Hear our prayer.

Reader
That isolated and persecuted churches may find strength in the good news of Easter,
We pray to the living God.

People
Hear our prayer.

Reader
That we and those to whom we look for governance—especially Joseph our President, Andrew our Governor, and Bill our Mayor—may be granted humility to be subject to one another in Christian love,
We pray to the living God.

People
Hear our prayer.

Reader
That those who lack food, work, shelter, or medicine may be blessed with provision,
We pray to the living God.

People
Hear our prayer.

Reader
That war, famine, and plague may cease in all the world,
We pray to the living God.

People
Hear our prayer.

Reader
That the light of God's presence may be revealed to the sick, the weak, and the dying, to comfort and sustain them,
We pray to the living God.

People
Hear our prayer.

Reader
That, according to God's promises, all who have died in the faith of the resurrection may be raised on the last day,
We pray to the living God.

People
Hear our prayer.

Reader
That God may send the fire of the Holy Spirit upon us, so that we may bear faithful witness to the resurrection,
We pray to the living God.

People
Hear our prayer.
O God, worker of wonders, you made this day for joy and gladness, yet you also know the needs that weigh upon our hearts: Hear, therefore, the prayers we bring to you, and grant us grace so to recognize the Risen One in our midst—the Christ now entered into glory, the firstborn from the dead—who is alive and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, One God for ever and ever.

Amen.

The peace of the Lord be always with you.

The peace of the Lord be always with you.

And also with you.

The People greet one another in the name of the Lord; in this season, we suggest a bow, wave, or other appropriate gesture.

Please be seated.

Jesus Christ, the King of Glory, has ascended today into the heavens.

He sits at the right hand of the Father and rules heaven and earth.

Now all the psalms of David, our father, are fulfilled.

Now the Lord sits with the Lord on the seat of God.

In this greatest of triumphs let us bless the Lord.

The Holy Trinity be glorified.

Let us give thanks to God.

—12th-century text

Dirigatur oratio mea sicut incensum in conspectu tuo.

Let my prayer be set forth in thy sight as incense.

—Psalm 141:2
The Great Thanksgiving

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, through your dearly beloved Son Jesus Christ our Lord. After his glorious resurrection he openly appeared to his disciples, and in their sight ascended into heaven, to prepare a place for us; that where he is, there we might also be, and reign with him in glory.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus

Music: William Mathias (1934-1992)

Please continue standing or kneel as you are able.
Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

AMEN.

The Lord's Prayer

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Our Father, who art in heaven,
    hallowed be thy Name,
    thy kingdom come,
    thy will be done,
        on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
    but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
    and the power, and the glory,
    for ever and ever. Amen.

Invitation

Celebrant

The Gifts of God for the People of God.
Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

A Prayer for Spiritual Communion

In the Episcopal tradition, we believe that when circumstances make it impossible to consume the Eucharistic elements, our desire is enough for God to grant all the benefits of communion.

Leader

I invite all those who are unable to receive the consecrated bread and wine this day, but who long for the grace and blessing of God through our Savior Jesus Christ, to join me in this Prayer for Spiritual Communion:

People

In union, Blessed Jesus, with your faithful people at every altar of your Church where the Holy Eucharist is now being celebrated, I offer my praise and thanksgiving. Since I cannot receive you today in the Sacrament of your Body and Blood, I ask you to come spiritually into my heart. Cleanse and strengthen me with your grace, Lord Jesus, and let me never be separated from you. May I live in you, and you in me, in this life and in the life to come. Amen.

Please be seated.
Communion Anthem

Rise Up, My Love, My Fair One

Rise up, my love, my fair one, and come away.
For lo, the winter is past, the rain is over and gone.
The flowers appear upon the earth.
The time of singing of birds is come.
Arise, my love, my fair one, and come away.

—Song of Solomon 2:10–13

Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

Please stand as you are able.

All

Almighty and everliving God,
we thank you for feeding us with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; and for assuring us in these holy mysteries that we are living members of the Body of your Son, and heirs of your eternal kingdom.
And now, Father, send us out to do the work you have given us to do, to love and serve you
as faithful witnesses of Christ our Lord.
To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit,
be honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

The Blessing

Celebrant

The God of peace, who brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus Christ, the great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant: Make you perfect in every good work to do his will, working in you that which is well-pleasing in his sight; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you and remain with you always.

All

Amen.

Trinity Book Club
6:30pm, Online
Trinity Book Club meets weekly to discuss the mysteries of the Christian faith through the medium of literature. Past books have included Spirituality of the Psalms by Walter Brueggemann, Mysteries of Faith by Mark McIntosh, and Inspired: Slaying Giants, Walking on Water, and Loving the Bible Again by Rachel Held Evans. Starting May 21, we’ll read Dr. Kelly Brown Douglas’ Stand Your Ground: Black Bodies and the Justice of God. For information about the next series, email RSVP@trinitywallstreet.org.

COMING SOON

Songs of Justice: A Youth Bible Study
Tuesdays, May 25, June 1 and 8, 5pm, Online
What song is the Holy Spirit stirring in your heart? Come together with youth from Church of the Heavenly Rest, Trinity Church Wall Street, and across the Diocese of New York for a youth Bible study. We’ll look at the Magnificat, or Song of Mary, alongside other songs of justice from the Bible and discuss the biblical theme of justice as a foundation for exploring what God is calling us to do with this time we have been given. Across three sessions, we’ll do a close reading of the text, respond with our own poetry reflections, and think together about how we want to show up in the world. Open to all youth ages 12–19. RSVP at trinitywallstreet.org/youth.

Trinity Sunday Parish Celebration
Sunday, May 30, 1:30pm, Online
Celebrate Trinity Sunday and kick off the summer season this Memorial Day weekend with a musical hour of fun and games hosted by ZogCulture. Sponsored by the Hospitality Committee. Information: Kyle Folk-Freund at KFolk-Freund@trinitywallstreet.org. Register by May 23 at trinitywallstreet.org/trinitysunday.

Pride Month
June
As an Episcopal church, Trinity Church Wall Street fully welcomes and affirms lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, and queer (LGBTQ+) people. We claim that all are made in the image of God, and everyone is invited to participate fully in Trinity’s worship, programs, and advocacy work. Throughout the year, we share stories of leading LGBTQ+ advocates through articles, videos, and events as part of our Pride 365 program. And, each June, our community marks Pride Month, inviting everyone to celebrate and recognize the glorious way in which God has created the diversity of humanity. Learn more and see the schedule at trinitywallstreet.org/pride.

Pride365: Allyship with The Center
Wednesday, June 2, 11am, Online
A recent study conducted by The Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual & Transgender Center showed that companies suffer when their employees are not fully themselves at work. This common reality forces employees to adjust their actions and words to make them non-LGBTQ+ peers comfortable. By defining what it means to be an ally, reflecting on personal experiences, and outlining the impact allies can have on their peers, this workshop leaves participating employees with skills to make actionable change in their workplace environments to foster inclusivity. Co-sponsored by The Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual & Transgender Center. Information: trinitywallstreet.org/epride.

Pride365: Intersectionality with The Center
Thursday, June 24, 11am, Online
Members of the LGBTQ+ workforce come from various backgrounds with different lived experiences and are not just defined by their sexual orientation or gender identity. In order to foster a truly inclusive environment, employees must be encouraged to be their full selves at work, and collaborate with colleagues across a multitude of identities. This workshop helps employees appreciate the diversity of others that extends beyond sexual orientation and gender identity—and become more deeply sensitive to the value that intersectionality can bring to a team and workplace. Co-sponsored by The Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual & Transgender Center. Information: trinitywallstreet.org/epride.

BULLETIN BOARD
Worship Reminders Available Via Text
Never miss another Sunday or weekday service—Trinity is offering simple text alerts to remind you of upcoming services. Simply text “11:15AM” to 28259 to receive a weekly reminder and link to Trinity’s 11:15am Holy Eucharist. Text “12:05PM” to 28259 to receive a reminder each weekday before the 12:05pm Holy Eucharist. Questions? Email Lynn Goswick at LGoswick@trinitywallstreet.org.

Let’s Stay in Touch: Parish Directory
Would you like to stay in touch with other parishioners during this unusual time but you don’t have your pew neighbor’s phone number or email address? Trinity’s membership department is compiling a directory to help us all stay connected until we can worship together again. To receive a digital copy of the directory, please contribute your contact information and a photo. Contact information may include any or all of the following: email address, mailing address, telephone number, and/or social media handle. To contribute or for more information, email Melissa Mistry at MMistry@trinitywallstreet.org.

Comfort at One
Mondays–Fridays, 1pm, Online
During trying times, music stills our souls and provides a healing grace. Weekdays at 1pm, we’re sharing performances on Facebook, Twitter, and trinitywallstreet.org/comfortatone, where you can easily catch up on anything you may have missed, no matter what time it is. Follow us and tune in for encore performances of our favorite concerts professionally filmed in HD, along with current at-home performances from Trinity’s extended family of artists. We hope these concerts help you find a haven of peace and comfort.

Congregational Voice

“Jesus looked at them carefully and said, “It’s impossible for human beings. But all things are possible for God” (Matthew 19:26 CEB). Some days the list of worldly woes that face us can really wear me down. This passage reminds me that although I am called to be an active participant in the Kingdom of God, and I relish that opportunity, the strength to do the work does not come from me, but from my deep love of God and my neighbor, and God’s overflowing, reconciling love for me and all of creation. There is great hope in that. —The Rev. Michael Bird, Vicar, Trinity Church

Pastoral Care

In case of illness, a death in the family, or other pastoral emergencies, call 917.488.0717 to reach a member of the Pastoral Care Team. For other pastoral needs, call 212.602.0800 and leave a detailed message. Someone will reach out as soon as possible.

FLOWERS

The flowers today are given by Korin and Korey Kormick in memory of their mother, Betty.

To donate flowers, email Flowers@trinitywallstreet.org.

This service conforms to Holy Eucharist: Rite Two, which begins on page 355 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Scripture readings are appointed by the Revised Common Lectionary (Episcopal) and are excerpted from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible. Other liturgical elements may include materials compiled by Trinity Church staff (TCWS) from publications including Enriching Our Worship (EOW), Common Worship: Times and Seasons (CW:TS), St. Augustine's Prayer Book (SAPB), the Book of Occasional Services 2003 (BOS), Lesser Feasts and Fasts 2018 (LFF), A New Zealand Prayer Book (NZPB), the prayer books of other member churches of the Anglican Communion, and other contemporary liturgical resources. An asterisk (*) denotes that the text is adapted from the original source material. Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982, Lift Every Voice and Sing II (LEVAS), and Wonder, Love, and Praise (WLP).
