TRINITY CHURCH

New York City

The First Sunday after Pentecost:

Trinity Sunday

May 30, 2021, 11:15am

Mission

In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

Vision

We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

Core Values

Faith

“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —MATTHEW 17:20

Integrity

“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —PHILIPPIANS 4:8

Inclusiveness

“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —GALATIANS 3:28

Compassion

“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.”
—MATTHEW 14:14

Social Justice

“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.”
—MICAH 6:8

Stewardship

“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —GENESIS 41:29-30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.

By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.

Welcome to Trinity Church

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus' Table, and everyone's voice is needed to tell the Good News of God's love in Christ.

About this Service

Trinity Sunday

Today is Trinity Sunday, the third Principal Feast of the Episcopal Church to occur during the past six weeks, and a special feast day for the parish of Trinity Church Wall Street. On Trinity Sunday, the Collect and Preface—prayers specific to the day—invite us to contemplate the three-fold nature of God: manifested as the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, and yet one unified Being. Trinity Sunday is always observed on the first Sunday after the Day of Pentecost; it was on this feast day in 1162 that great English martyr Thomas à Becket was consecrated Archbishop of Canterbury. Historically, from the 12th until the early 20th century, the Sundays after Pentecost were counted as the Sundays after Trinity.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, you have given to us your servants grace, by the confession of a true faith, to acknowledge the glory of the eternal Trinity, and in the power of your divine Majesty to worship the Unity: Keep us steadfast in this faith and worship, and bring us at last to see you in your one and eternal glory, O Father; who with the Son and the Holy Spirit live and reign, one God, for ever and ever.

The First Reading

Isaiah 6:1-8

Reader A Reading from the Book of Isaiah.

In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord sitting on a throne, high and lofty; and the hem of his robe filled the temple. Seraphs were in attendance above him; each had six wings: with two they covered their faces, and with two they covered their feet, and with two they flew. And one called to another and said:

“Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of hosts;
the whole earth is full of his glory.”

The pivots on the thresholds shook at the voices of those who called, and the house filled with smoke. And I said: “Woe is me! I am lost, for I am a man of unclean lips, and I live among a people of unclean lips; yet my eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts!”

Then one of the seraphs flew to me, holding a live coal that had been taken from the altar with a pair of tongs. The seraph touched my mouth with it and said: “Now that this has touched your lips, your guilt has departed and your sin is blotted out.” Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, “Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?” And I said, “Here am I; send me!”

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

People Thanks be to God.

The Psalm

Psalm 29

BCP p. 620

Said by all, with musical accompaniment.

All Ascribe to the LORD, you gods, ***
 ascribe to the LORD glory and strength.
Ascribe to the LORD the glory due his Name; *
 worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness.
The voice of the LORD is upon the waters;
the God of glory thunders; *
 the LORD is upon the mighty waters.
The voice of the LORD is a powerful voice; *
 the voice of the LORD is a voice of splendor.
The voice of the LORD breaks the cedar trees; *
 the LORD breaks the cedars of Lebanon;
He makes Lebanon skip like a calf, *
 and Mount Hermon like a young wild ox.
The voice of the LORD splits the flames of fire;
the voice of the LORD shakes the wilderness; *
 the LORD shakes the wilderness of Kadesh.
The voice of the LORD makes the oak trees writhe *
 and strips the forests bare.
And in the temple of the LORD *
 all are crying, “Glory!”
The LORD sits enthroned above the flood; *
 the LORD sits enthroned as King for evermore.
The LORD shall give strength to his people; *
 the LORD shall give his people the blessing of peace.

The Second Reading

Romans 8:12–17

Reader A Reading from the Letter of Paul to the Romans.

Brothers and sisters, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh—for if you live according to the flesh, you will die; but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live. For all who are led by the Spirit of God are children of God. For you did not receive a spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received a spirit of adoption. When we cry, “Abba! Father!” it is that very Spirit bearing witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs, heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ—if, in fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

People Thanks be to God.

Sequence

Please stand as you are able.

The Holy Gospel

John 3:1-17

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon Now there was a Pharisee named Nicodemus, a leader of the Jews. He came to Jesus by night and said to him, "Rabbi, we know that you are a teacher who has come from God; for no one can do these signs that you do apart from the presence of God." Jesus answered him, "Very truly, I tell you, no one can see the kingdom of God without being born from above." Nicodemus said to him, "How can anyone be born after having grown old? Can one enter a second time into the mother's womb and be born?" Jesus answered, "Very truly, I tell you, no one can enter the kingdom of God without being born of water and Spirit. What is born of the flesh is flesh, and what is born of the Spirit is spirit. Do not be astonished that I said to you, 'You must be born from above.' The wind blows where it chooses, and you hear the sound of it, but you do not know where it comes from or where it goes. So it is with everyone who is born of the Spirit." Nicodemus said to him, "How can these things be?" Jesus answered him, "Are you a teacher of Israel, and yet you do not understand these things?"

"Very truly, I tell you, we speak of what we know and testify to what we have seen; yet you do not receive our testimony. If I have told you about earthly things and you do not believe, how can you believe if I tell you about heavenly things? No one has ascended into heaven except the one who descended from heaven, the Son of Man. And just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, that whoever believes in him may have eternal life.

"For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but may have eternal life.

"Indeed, God did not send the Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him."

The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon

The Rev. Dr. Mark Francisco Bozzuti-Jones
Priest and Director of Spiritual Formation, Trinity Retreat Center

The Nicene Creed

BCP p. 358

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

All

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

CW:TS p. 508*/BCP p. 395

Leader We come boldly to the throne of heaven, praying to Almighty God—Creator, Redeemer, and Giver of Life—for mercy and grace.

Hear our prayer, triune God,

People And draw us into your life of love.

Leader Father of all, whose profound compassion ransomed our souls: We pray for our nation and our government—especially for Joseph our President, Andrew our Governor, and Bill our Mayor, and all who seek to bring justice and righteousness into the world created by your love. Empower your people to make change, and grant us your mercy and grace.

Hear our prayer, triune God,

People And draw us into your life of love.

Leader Beloved Son, incarnate Word, we pray that the ministry of the Church, created for your glory, might reflect your mighty acts: We remember especially Michael our Presiding Bishop; Andrew, Allen, and Mary our diocesan bishops; and all the people of God. Extend to us your salvation, mercy, and grace.

Hear our prayer, triune God,

People And draw us into your life of love.

Leader Eternal Spirit, by whose breath our souls are stirred and raised: We pray for all members of the human family, created in your image, and especially for the lonely, the bereaved, the sick, and the dying. Breathe on them the breath of life and bring them to your mercy and grace.

Hear our prayer, triune God,

People And draw us into your life of love.

Leader Thrice holy! Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, mystical Godhead, Three in One: We pray for ourselves, for this parish, and for all whom we remember before you this day.

The people may add their own thanksgivings, petitions, or remembrances, either silently or aloud.

Bring us together to bow before your throne in heaven—to receive life and pardon, mercy and grace for all eternity.

Hear our prayer, triune God,

People And draw us into your life of love.

Silence

Celebrant O Lord our God, accept the fervent prayers of your people; in the multitude of your mercies, look with compassion upon us and all who turn to you for help; for you are gracious, O lover of souls, and to you we give glory, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, now and for ever.

All Amen.

Confession and Absolution

EOW p. 56/BCP p. 360

Celebrant Let us confess our sins to God.

Silence

All Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

All Amen.

My Soul's Been Anchored in the Lord

arr. Florence Price (1887-1953)

In the Lord, in the Lord,
My soul's been anchored in the Lord.
Before I'd stay in hell one day,
My soul's been anchored in the Lord;
I'd sing and pray myself away,
My soul's been anchored in the Lord.
I'm going to pray and never stop,
My soul's been anchored in the Lord;
Until I've reached the mountain top,
My soul's been anchored in the Lord.

Censing of the Altar

Let my prayer be set forth in thy sight as incense.

The Great Thanksgiving

BCP p. 367/p. 380

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth; for with your co-eternal Son and Holy Spirit, you are one God, one Lord, in Trinity of Persons and in Unity of Being; and we celebrate the one and equal glory of you, O Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus

BCP p. 367

All Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

Please continue standing or kneel as you are able.

Celebrant

We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

All

We remember his death,
We proclaim his resurrection,
We await his coming in glory;

Celebrant

And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

All

AMEN.

The Lord's Prayer

BCP p. 364

Celebrant And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,
All Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

The Fraction and Invitation

BCP p. 364

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread. Silence is kept.

Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God.
Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

A Prayer for Spiritual Communion

SAPB p. 145*

In the Episcopal tradition, we believe that when circumstances make it impossible to consume the Eucharistic elements, our desire is enough for God to grant all the benefits of communion.

Leader I invite all those who are unable to receive the consecrated bread and wine this day, but who long for the grace and blessing of God through our Savior Jesus Christ, to join me in this Prayer for Spiritual Communion:

Said by those who will not receive Communion today.

People In union, Blessed Jesus, with your faithful people at every altar of your Church where the Holy Eucharist is now being celebrated,
I offer my praise and thanksgiving.
Since I cannot receive you today
in the Sacrament of your Body and Blood,
I ask you to come spiritually into my heart.
Cleanse and strengthen me with your grace, Lord Jesus, and let me never be separated from you.
May I live in you, and you in me,
in this life and in the life to come. Amen.

Please be seated.

After the prayer, please remain in your seat.

Clergy will distribute communion in one kind—bread only—and will come directly to you where you are seated.

Please stand to receive the host.

At Communion

City Called Heaven

arr. Hall Johnson (1888-1970)

I am a poor pilgrim of sorrow,
I'm tossed in this wide world alone.
No hope I have for tomorrow,
I've started to make Heav'n my home.

Sometimes I am tossed and driven, Lord,
Sometimes I don't know where to roam.
I've heard of a city called Heaven,
I've started to make it my home.

My mother has reached that pure glory,
My father's still walking in sin,
My brothers and sisters won't own me,
Because I am tryin' to get in.

Sometimes I am tossed and driven, Lord,
Sometimes I don't know where to roam.
I've heard of a city called Heaven,
I've started to make it my home.

COVID-19 Community Conversations

11:30am, Online

Mental Health Equity and Resilience with DOHMH

The COVID-19 pandemic is a worldwide shared traumatic experience that disrupts and affects our families, friends, and communities. In New York City and nationally, people of color are disproportionately affected by COVID-19. To address the mental health challenges brought by the pandemic and structural racism in our city, the Department of Health and Mental Hygiene (DOHMH) is providing free virtual presentations to our Trinity community in self-care, coping skills, and ways to build individual and community resilience. Join us for this one-hour workshop at 11:30am on the first Tuesday or at 6:30pm on the third Tuesday of every month. RSVP for free at trinitywallstreet.org/covidconversations.

We'll look at the Magnificat, or Song of Mary, alongside other songs of justice from the Bible and discuss the biblical theme of justice as a foundation for exploring what God is calling us to do with this time we have been given. Across three sessions, we'll do a close reading of the text, respond with our own poetry reflections, and think together about how we want to show up in the world. Open to all youth ages 12–19. RSVP at trinitywallstreet.org/youth.

Pride365: Allyship with The Center

11am, Online

A recent study conducted by The Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual & Transgender Center showed that companies suffer when their employees are not fully themselves at work. This common reality forces employees to adjust their actions and words to make their non-LGBTQ+ peers comfortable. By defining what it means to be an ally, reflecting on personal experiences, and outlining the impact allies can have on their peers, this workshop leaves participating employees with skills to make actionable change in their workplace environments to foster inclusivity. Co-sponsored by The Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual & Transgender Center. Information: trinitywallstreet.org/pride.

Talking Drum, Global Heartbeat

Journaling is a powerful way to record, reflect on, and become a witness to your own experience, healing, and sense of self. We will play with writing reflections, stories, questions, lists, poems, letters, and dialogues. We will also access our creative expression and spirit through drawings, self-portraits, images, collages, and scribbles that unite our hands, hearts, and minds. No artistic or writing experience needed. Facilitator: Julia Kristeller, MEd, of Psychotherapy & Spirituality Institute. Register at trinitywallstreet.org/commonsprograms.

ANGLICAN CYCLE OF PRAYER

Pray for La Iglesia Anglicana de Mexico.

Congregational Voice

“Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus” (Philippians 4:6-7 NIV); “For I know the plans I have for you,” declares the LORD, ‘plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future’” (Jeremiah 29:11 NIV). There are times that I get anxious or just beaten down by the things that have occurred in life, I know I can go to the Lord in prayer and that He has a plan for everything in my life. That in the end all things will get better as long as I trust and believe in Him. —Aubrey West-Grant
