TRINITY CHURCH
Broadway at Wall Street
New York City

Season of (Re)creation

The Fourteenth Week after Pentecost

August 23–27, 2021, 12:05pm

Mission

In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

Vision

We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

Core Values

Faith

“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —MATTHEW 17:20

Integrity

“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —PHILIPPIANS 4:8

Inclusiveness

“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —GALATIANS 3:28

Compassion

“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.”
—MATTHEW 14:14

Social Justice

“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.”
—MICAH 6:8

Stewardship

“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —GENESIS 41:29-30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.

By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.

Welcome to Trinity Church

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus' Table, and everyone's voice is needed to tell the Good News of God's love in Christ.

About this Service

Season of (Re)creation

Following Jesus often leads us into action and encourages us to undertake good works on behalf of God and neighbor. Following Jesus—the one who prayed on solitary mountainsides and slept in a vessel crossing the sea—also leads us into times of stillness and rest: opportunities for spiritual and physical recreation.

After the tumult and turmoil of the past year, each of us is in need of profound rest. Taking time off from regular responsibilities will not be possible for everyone in our community this summer; it wasn't always possible for Jesus. In this “season-within-a-season” of (Re)creation, we consider together the holiness of respite, visible in the life of the Trinity, and encourage one another to create sacred spaces however we may: in days set aside for rest; hours reserved for prayer or fellowship; moments of silence; or a general inclination toward mercy and patience—in our engagements with others and with our own selves.

“Come unto me, all you that are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me; for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.” —Matthew 11:28–30

The Homily

The Prayers of the People

TCWS/BCP p. 394

Please stand as you are able.

Leader Let us pray to Almighty God, who in Creation, in holy instruction, and in the life of the Word commends to us renewal tempered by rest; speech informed by silence; community sustained by solitude; and action infused with prayer.

Silence

God of Creation, source of our breath: You created the world in six days, and on the seventh you rested. Help the people and leaders of your Church to encourage one another in times of labor and times of respite. We pray especially for Michael our Presiding Bishop, and Andrew, Allen, and Mary, our Diocesan Bishops.

Lord, hear us.

People Lord, graciously hear us.

Leader God of the life-giving Law: You instituted among your people a year of Jubilee, in which soil would lie fallow, debts would be forgiven, and prisoners freed. Inspire the leaders of this nation to accommodate mercy. We pray especially for Joseph our President and Bill our Mayor; and for Andrew and Kathy in this time of gubernatorial transition.

Lord, hear us.

People Lord, graciously hear us.

Leader God of relationship, God of the feast: Your favored one, Mary, journeyed to the hills to prepare for the arrival of your Son in the company of those she loved. Stay close to us when we travel; be in our reunions and in our fellowship, and bring us home again in safety.

Lord, hear us.

People Lord, graciously hear us.

Leader God of accompaniment: Amidst the press of the crowds, Jesus led his disciples away to rest and pray. Help us, amid the changes and chances of this world, to always take shelter in you, and grant respite and healing to all those who suffer. We remember especially this day your children in Haiti and in Afghanistan, burdened with destruction, loss, fear, and uncertainty. Guide them, protect them, and comfort them, we pray.

Lord, hear us.

People Lord, graciously hear us.

Leader God of new life: The body of your Beloved Child lay in the earth for three days before rising up again. Grant to the departed rest in the land of light and joy, and bring us with them into the glorious company of your saints.

Lord, hear us.

People Lord, graciously hear us.

Celebrant Almighty and eternal God, ruler of all things in heaven and earth: Mercifully accept the prayers of your people, and strengthen us to do your will; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

Confession and Absolution

EOW p. 56/BCP p. 360

Celebrant Let us confess our sins to God.

Silence

All Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,
have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Celebrant We praise you and we bless you, holy and gracious God, source of life abundant. From before time you made ready the creation. Your Spirit moved over the deep and brought all things into being: sun, moon, and stars; earth, winds, and waters; and every living thing. You made us in your image, and taught us to walk in your ways. But we rebelled against you, and wandered far away; and yet, as a mother cares for her children, you would not forget us. Time and again you called us to live in the fullness of your love.

And so this day we join with Saints and Angels in the chorus of praise that rings through eternity, lifting our voices to magnify you as we say:

Sanctus

EOW p. 60

All Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

Please continue standing or kneel as you are able.

Celebrant Glory and honor and praise to you, holy and living God. To deliver us from the power of sin and death and to reveal the riches of your grace, you looked with favor upon Mary, your willing servant, that she might conceive and bear a son, Jesus the holy child of God.

Living among us, Jesus loved us. He broke bread with outcasts and sinners, healed the sick, and proclaimed good news to the poor. He yearned to draw all the world to himself yet we were heedless of his call to walk in love. Then, the time came for him to complete upon the cross the sacrifice of his life, and to be glorified by you.

On the night before he died for us, Jesus was at table with his friends. He took bread, gave thanks to you, broke it, and gave it to them, and said: "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine. Again, he gave thanks to you, gave it to them, and said: "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Now gathered at your table, O God of all creation, and remembering Christ, crucified and risen, who was and is and is to come, we offer to you our gifts of bread and wine, and ourselves, a living sacrifice.

Pour out your Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Body and Blood of Christ. Breathe your Spirit over the whole earth and make us your new creation, the Body of Christ given for the world you have made.

In the fullness of time bring us, with all your saints, from every tribe and language and people and nation, to feast at the banquet prepared from the foundation of the world.

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, to you be honor, glory, and praise, for ever and ever.

All AMEN.

The Lord's Prayer

BCP p. 364

Celebrant As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,

All Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your Name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen.

The Fraction and Invitation

BCP p. 364

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread. Silence is kept.

Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God.
Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

A Prayer for Spiritual Communion

SAPB p. 145*

In the Episcopal tradition, we believe that when circumstances make it impossible to consume the Eucharistic elements, our desire is enough for God to grant all the benefits of communion.

Leader I invite all those who are unable to receive the consecrated bread and wine this day, but who long for the grace and blessing of God through our Savior Jesus Christ, to join me in this Prayer for Spiritual Communion:

Said by those who will not receive Communion today.

People In union, Blessed Jesus, with your faithful people
at every altar of your Church where the Holy Eucharist is now being celebrated,
I offer my praise and thanksgiving.
Since I cannot receive you today
in the Sacrament of your Body and Blood,
I ask you to come spiritually into my heart.
Cleanse and strengthen me with your grace, Lord Jesus,
and let me never be separated from you.
May I live in you, and you in me,
in this life and in the life to come. Amen.

Please be seated.

At Communion

A musician offers a brief improvisation.

Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

EOW p. 69

Please stand as you are able.

All God of abundance,
you have fed us
with the bread of life and cup of salvation;
you have united us
with Christ and one another;
and you have made us one
with all your people in heaven and on earth.
Now send us forth
in the power of your Spirit, that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world and continue for ever in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

The Blessing

NZPB p. 556/BCP p. 339*

Celebrant May you be a new creation—Christ for those to whom Christ shall send you; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be upon you and remain with you for ever.

All Amen.

Dismissal

BCP p. 366

Celebrant Let us go forth in the name of Christ.

People Thanks be to God.
