Requiem Holy Eucharist

September 12, 2021, 11:15am

Mission

In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

Vision

We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

Core Values

Faith

“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —MATTHEW 17:20

Integrity

“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —PHILIPPIANS 4:8

Inclusiveness

“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —GALATIANS 3:28

Compassion

“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.”
—MATTHEW 14:14

Social Justice

“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.”
—MICAH 6:8

Stewardship

“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —GENESIS 41:29-30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.

By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.

Welcome to Trinity Church

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus' Table, and everyone's voice is needed to tell the Good News of God's love in Christ.

About this Service

Requiem Holy Eucharist

The terrorist attacks of September 11th, 2001 forever changed the people of this nation. We heard the news in cities and small towns; on farms; at school or at work; in church; on the road. For the people of New York City, including those who sought safety and solace within Trinity Church and St. Paul's Chapel, what happened to the nation twenty years ago happened at home.

Like all who grieve, we who gather for this year's commemoration bring with us diverse hopes, needs, and expectations. Some seek to remember and honor those who died, some to resolve inner conflict. Some seek to apply their hearts, souls, and minds, expanded and refined through twenty years of perseverance and growth, to a reconsideration of the meaning of that terrible day.

We arrive differently, and yet with a shared desire to be in community and in the presence of God. Through prayer and meditation—by offering up our selves and our best intentions for the good of the world, we affirm the gift of life and our shared commitment to compassion, reconciliation, and mercy.

Lord, make us instruments of your peace. Where there is hatred, let us sow love; where there is injury, pardon; where there is discord, union; where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope; where there is darkness, light; where there is sadness, joy. Grant that we may not so much seek to be consoled as to console; to be understood as to understand; to be loved as to love. For it is in giving that we receive; it is in pardoning that we are pardoned; and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life. Amen.

we worship you, we give you thanks, we praise you for your glory.

receive our prayer.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord,

The Collect of the Day

written by the Most Rev. Frank T. Griswold

Celebrant God be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

God the compassionate one, whose loving care extends to all the world, we remember this day your children of many nations and many faiths whose lives were cut short by the fierce flames of anger and hatred. Console those who continue to suffer and grieve, and give them comfort and hope as they look to the future. Out of what we have endured, give us the grace to examine our relationships with those who perceive us as the enemy, and show our leaders the way to use our power to serve the good of all for the healing of the nations. This we ask through Jesus Christ our Lord who, in reconciling love, was lifted up from the earth that he might draw all things to himself.

All Amen.

Please be seated.

The First Reading

Isaiah 61:1-4

Reader A Reading from the Book of Isaiah.

The spirit of the Lord GOD is upon me, because the LORD has anointed me;
he has sent me to bring good news to the oppressed,
to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives,
and release to the prisoners;
to proclaim the year of the LORD's favor,
and the day of vengeance of our God;
to comfort all who mourn;
to provide for those who mourn in Zion—
to give them a garland instead of ashes, the oil of gladness instead of mourning,
the mantle of praise instead of a faint spirit.
They will be called oaks of righteousness,
the planting of the LORD, to display his glory.
They shall build up the ancient ruins,
they shall raise up the former devastations;
they shall repair the ruined cities,
the devastations of many generations.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People Thanks be to God.

The Psalm

Psalm 31:1-5, 19-21

BCP p. 622

Said antiphonally, alternating between the Leader and People.

Leader In you, O LORD, have I taken refuge; let me never be put to shame; *
deliver me in your righteousness.

People Incline your ear to me; ***
make haste to deliver me.

Leader Be my strong rock, a castle to keep me safe,
for you are my crag and my stronghold; *
for the sake of your Name, lead me and guide me.

People Take me out of the net that they have secretly set for me, ***
for you are my tower of strength.

Leader Into your hands I commend my spirit, *
for you have redeemed me,
O LORD, O God of truth.

People How great is your goodness, O LORD!
which you have laid up for those who fear you; *
which you have done in the sight of all for those who put their trust in you.

Leader You hide them in the covert of your presence from those who slander them; *
you keep them in your shelter from the strife of tongues.

People Blessed be the LORD! ***
for he has shown me the wonders of his love in a besieged city.

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain; and after he sat down, his disciples came to him. Then he began to speak, and taught them, saying:

“Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.

“Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth.

“Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.

The Sermon

The Most Rev. Michael Bruce Curry

The 27th Presiding Bishop and Primate of The Episcopal Church

The Nicene Creed

BCP p. 358

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

All

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

written by Tobias Stanislas Haller, BSG*

Leader With all our heart and all our mind, we pray to you, O God:

People Make us instruments of your peace.

Leader For the peace of the world, that a spirit of respect and forbearance may grow among nations and peoples, we pray to you, O God:

People Where there is hatred, let us sow love.

Leader For our enemies and all who wish others harm, especially those led to acts of terror; and for people of peace, that in the aftermath of destruction they may grow ever more deeply in your spirit of justice and compassion, we pray to you, O God:

People Where there is injury, let us sow pardon.

Leader For all who believe in Christ, and all whose faith is known to you alone, that in their hearts neither seeds of hatred and violence, nor those of privilege and apathy may take root, we pray to you, O God:

People Where there is discord, let us sow union.

Leader For those who have lost their faith, that your Church may be a source of comfort and hope in this time of remembrance, we pray to you, O God:

People Where there is doubt, let us sow faith.

Leader For all those to whom the violence of September 11th, 2001 brought heartbreak and despair; for those who continue to mourn the loss of those they love; for this nation, disturbed in spirit these many years; and for all those who are persecuted, lonely, sick, or in need, that they might be rescued, accompanied, and protected, we pray to you, O God:

People Where there is despair, let us sow hope.

Leader For the mission and ministry of The Episcopal Church, especially in the Diocese of New York and this parish of Trinity Church and St. Paul's Chapel; that we may hear the Gospel and proclaim it in word and action to build up your kingdom on earth, we pray to you, O God:

People Where there is darkness, let us sow light.

Leader For all who died on September 11th, and for those others we remember today, in trust that they have been found by you and are at rest in your holy habitations, we pray to you, O God:

People Where there is sadness, let us sow joy.

Silence

Leader We give thanks for the life of this congregation, and ask your guidance as we seek to follow Christ in faith, integrity, inclusiveness, compassion, social justice, and stewardship; we thank you also for the pilgrims among whom we sojourn: all those who bring their hearts and faith to our community.

All For it is in giving that we receive,
it is in pardoning that we are pardoned;

Gabriel Fauré (1845-1924)

O Domine Jesu Christe, Rex gloriae,
libera animas defunctorum de poenis inferni,
et de profundo lacu,

O Domine Jesu Christe, Rex gloriae,
libera animas de ore leonis,
ne absorbeat tartarus,

O Domine Jesu Christe, Rex gloriae,
Jesu Christe: ne cadant in obscurum.

Hostias et preces tibi, Domine, laudis offerimus:

tu suscipe pro animabus illis, quarum hodie memoriam facimus:
fac eas, Domine, de morte transire ad vitam.
Quam olim Abrahae promisisti et semini ejus.

O Domine Jesu Christe, Rex gloriae,
libera animas defunctorum de poenis inferni,
et de profundo lacu:
ne cadant in obscurum. Amen.

*O Lord Jesus Christ, King of glory,
deliver the souls from the pains of hell
and from the deep waters,*

*O Lord Jesus Christ, King of glory,
deliver the souls from the mouth of the lion;
let hell not swallow them,*

*O Lord Jesus Christ, King of glory,
Jesus Christ, let them not fall into darkness.*

*Sacrifices and prayers of praise
we offer you, O Lord:*

accept them for those souls whom we commemorate today.

*Make them pass, O Lord, from death to life.
Which of old you promised to Abraham and his seed.*

*O Lord Jesus Christ, King of glory,
deliver the souls from the pains of hell
and from the deep waters:
let them not fall into darkness. Amen.*

The Great Thanksgiving

BCP p. 361/CW*

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant Blessed are you, Lord of life, creator of heaven and earth, to you be glory and praise for ever. For through his death on the cross, your Son Jesus Christ has broken the power of evil, and by his glorious resurrection has opened for us the gate of life eternal. In him you seek the lost, restoring those whose lives have been shattered and torn apart. In the fullness of time, he will gather all things to himself, enfolding us in his undying love.

And so we pray that we who have set our hope on Christ may come to the peace of heaven, there, with angels and archangels, to sing your praise for ever:

Sanctus

Sanctus

Gabriel Fauré (1845-1924)

Sanctus, Sanctus, Sanctus, Dominus Deus Sabaoth.
Pleni sunt coeli et terra gloria tua.
Hosanna in excelsis.

*Holy, Holy, Holy,
Lord God of hosts,
heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
—from Requiem, Op. 48*

Please continue standing or kneel as you are able.

Celebrant Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

Celebrant

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

All

AMEN.

The Lord's Prayer

BCP p. 364

Celebrant

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

All

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

The Fraction and Invitation

BCP p. 364

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread. Silence is kept.

Celebrant

The Gifts of God for the People of God.
Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

A Prayer for Spiritual Communion

SAPB p. 145*

In the Episcopal tradition, we believe that when circumstances make it impossible to consume the Eucharistic elements, our desire is enough for God to grant all the benefits of communion.

Leader I invite all those who are unable to receive the consecrated bread and wine this day, but who long for the grace and blessing of God through our Savior Jesus Christ, to join me in this Prayer for Spiritual Communion:

Said by those who will not receive Communion today.

People In union, Blessed Jesus, with your faithful people at every altar of your Church where the Holy Eucharist is now being celebrated,
I offer my praise and thanksgiving.
Since I cannot receive you today in the Sacrament of your Body and Blood,
I ask you to come spiritually into my heart.
Cleanse and strengthen me with your grace, Lord Jesus, and let me never be separated from you.
May I live in you, and you in me,
in this life and in the life to come. Amen.

Please be seated.

After the prayer, please remain in your seat.

Clergy will distribute communion in one kind—bread only—and will come directly to you where you are seated.

Please stand to receive the host.

grant them eternal rest.
Let light perpetual shine upon them, Lord,

—from Requiem, Op. 48

Jerusalem, My Happy Home

Jerusalem, my happy home, when shall I come to thee?
When shall my sorrows have an end? Thy joys when shall I see?
Thy saints are crowned with glory great; they see God face to face;
they triumph still, they still rejoice in that most happy place.
There David stands with harp in hand as master of the choir:
ten thousand times would one be blest who might this music hear.
Our Lady sings Magnificat with tune surpassing sweet, and blessèd martyrs' harmony doth ring in every street.
Jerusalem, Jerusalem, God grant that I may see thine endless joy, and of the same partaker ever be!

Land of Rest, American folk hymn

—F. B. P. (c. 16th century), alt.

Recessional

At the River

Aaron Copland (1900-1990)

Shall we gather by the river,
Where bright angel's feet have trod,
With its crystal tide forever
Flowing by the throne of God?

Yes, we'll gather by the river,
The beautiful, the beautiful river,
Gather with the saints by the river
That flows by the throne of God.

Soon we'll reach the shining river,
Soon our pilgrimage will cease,
Soon our happy hearts will quiver
With the melody of peace.

Yes, we'll gather by the river,
The beautiful, the beautiful river,
Gather with the saints by the river
That flows by the throne of God.

Trinity Church Cemetery and Mausoleum

Choosing a final resting place can be a daunting task. Planning for our own and our loved ones' passing is challenging; however, securing a burial option in advance is an act of love and care, providing peace of mind to all involved and greatly reducing stress at the time of passing. The caring staff at Trinity Church Cemetery and Mausoleum is here to compassionately serve and guide you through the process, whether you have an immediate need or are planning. We offer the only active place of burial in Manhattan, with affordable above-ground interment options for people of all faiths.

Trinity Church Cemetery and Mausoleum offers interment options for both cremated and casketed remains. Listed on the National Register of Historic Places, the beautiful grounds of the historic cemetery and the modern community mausoleum offer a peaceful, sacred place to visit and honor loved ones who have passed. This is a timeless place of memorial honoring many influential New Yorkers including John Jacob Astor, John James Audubon, Eliza Jumel, Mayor Edward I. Koch, and Governor John Adams Dix.
