The Second Sunday of Advent

December 5, 2021, 9:15am

Mission

In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

Vision

We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

Core Values

Faith

“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —MATTHEW 17:20

Integrity

“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —PHILIPPIANS 4:8

Inclusiveness

“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —GALATIANS 3:28

Compassion

“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.”
—MATTHEW 14:14

Social Justice

“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.”
—MICAH 6:8

Stewardship

“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —GENESIS 41:29-30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.

By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.

Welcome to Trinity Commons

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus' Table, and everyone's voice is needed to tell the Good News of God's love in Christ.

If you would like to learn more about The Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service

Family Holy Eucharist

As you participate in this service, the language will feel at once simplified and familiar. Each week, we will pray, sing, and reflect on the Word of God in language that is intentionally accessible for children. At the same time, we draw on the essential elements of Episcopal worship—the Lord's Prayer, the collects, the confession and the creed—learning together to pattern our prayer after the Book of Common Prayer.

In the Baptismal Covenant, the Church vows to support the spiritual development of each new member of the Body of Christ. We often think of this in terms of adults supporting children in their faith formation. In truth, each of us, no matter our age, can help support the spiritual growth of every other member of our church community. One of the many ways we do this is by participating together in worship.

By worshipping together in this way, we can help our children experience the unshakable love of God in Jesus Christ. And adults, in turn, may be surprised to find themselves supported in their lives in Christ by the young people of our community.

*Will you who witness these vows do all in your power to support these persons in their life in Christ? We will. (BCP 1979, p. 303).

Family Holy Eucharist

All in attendance are required to wear masks while inside Trinity Commons.

Opening Hymn

At the sound of the bell, please stand as you are able.

O Come, O Come, Emmanuel

Veni, veni, Emmanuel

Lighting of the Advent Wreath

TCWS

Reader Advent is a season of expectation: a time when we prepare our hearts and spirits for the birth of Jesus. Each week in Advent, we light another candle in our wreath. As it becomes brighter and brighter, it helps us remember that Jesus brings the light and love of God into the world. We have already lit the candle for hope.

A member of the parish lights the second candle on the Advent Wreath.

Jesus is coming! We light the second candle, which represents faith.

People God, give us faith! Amen.

Acclamation

BCP p. 355

Celebrant Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

People And blessed be God's kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

Welcome

The Celebrant welcomes the people and invites them to prayer.

Gathering Prayer

TCWS

All Dear God,
Thank you so much
for bringing us to this time and place.
Please be with us
as we listen, pray, and learn.
And help us remember that you will always love us.
Amen.

The Collect of the Day

BCP p. 211

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Merciful God, who sent your messengers the prophets to preach repentance and prepare the way for our salvation: Give us grace to heed their warnings and forsake our sins, that we may greet with joy the coming of Jesus Christ our Redeemer; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

All Amen.

Scripture Acclamation

In excelsis Deo

arr. Greg Gilpin (b. 1964)

In excelsis Deo, singing glory, hallelu!

—Traditional text

The Reading

Luke 3:1–6

Please be seated.

Reader A Reading from the Gospel according to Luke.

In the fifteenth year of the reign of Emperor Tiberius, when Pontius Pilate was governor of Judea, and Herod was ruler of Galilee, and his brother Philip ruler of the region of Ituraea and Trachonitis, and Lysanias ruler of Abilene, during the high priesthood of Annas and Caiaphas, the word of God came to John son of Zechariah in the wilderness. He went into all the region around the Jordan, proclaiming a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins, as it is written in the book of the words of the prophet Isaiah,

“The voice of one crying out in the wilderness:

‘Prepare the way of the Lord,
make his paths straight.

Every valley shall be filled,
and every mountain and hill shall be made low,
and the crooked shall be made straight,
and the rough ways made smooth;
and all flesh shall see the salvation of God.’”

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

People Thanks be to God.

Response

The Rev. Matthew A. Welsch
Priest for Youth and Family

The Creed

TCWS

Please stand as you are able.

All I believe in God the Father, who has made me and all the world.
I believe in God the Son, who loves me and saves me.
I believe in God the Holy Spirit, who is in me and all creation. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

TCWS, based on BCP p. 383

Preacher Let us join together in prayer either out loud or silently.
Let us pray for the Church—for our bishops, priests, deacons, and all who follow Jesus.

People We say, “God, inspire us to be your Church.”
God, inspire us to be your Church.

Preacher Let us pray for our country—for the president, our governor, and our mayor—and all who lead in our communities.

People We say, “God, guide our leaders.”
God, guide our leaders.

Preacher Let us pray for our community—for our families, our neighbors, our city.

People We say, “God, bless and protect our community.”
God, bless and protect our community.

Preacher Let us pray for the world—for all plants and animals, for the seas and skies, for all people around the world. We pray especially for people or animals who are sick or need help. For whom do we pray?

Pause
People We say, “God, bless the whole earth.”
God, bless the whole earth.

Preacher Let us pray for people or situations that concern or worry us. What worries can we share with God?

Pause
People We say, “Help us, God, we trust in you.”
Help us, God, we trust in you.

Preacher Let us now say thank you to God for all the good things that happen in our lives. Are there any special things that we are grateful for?

Pause
People We say, “Thank you so much, God!”
Thank you so much, God!

Celebrant And finally let us gather all our prayers into one: Gracious God, accept the prayers of your people: the things we pray for out loud and the things we pray for in our hearts. We pray in Jesus’ name.

All Amen.

Confession and Absolution

TCWS, based on BCP p. 360

Celebrant Let us confess our sins to God and one another.

All Loving God,
Sometimes we do things we shouldn't do.
Sometimes we don't do the things we should do.
We are sorry.
Forgive us for our mistakes.
Help us make good choices.
And remind us that you love us.

Celebrant Dear friends: the good news is that God will always love you—and all of us—no matter what!
And may God—Father, Son, and Holy Spirit—forgive you now and always.

All Amen.

The Peace

BCP p. 360

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

The People greet one another in the name of the Lord; in this season, we suggest a bow, wave, or other appropriate gesture.

Announcements

Please be seated.

The Holy Communion

The Offertory

Please place your offering in the basket at the rear of the hall as you exit the service.

Visit trinitywallstreet.org/donate for additional ways to make an offering.

Offertory Anthem

There's a Voice in the Wilderness

Ascension, Henry Hugh Bancroft (1904-1988)

There's a voice in the wilderness crying,
a call from the ways untrod:
Prepare in the desert a highway,
a highway for our God!
The valleys shall be exalted,
the lofty hills brought low;
make straight all the crooked places where the Lord our God may go!

O Zion, that bringest good tidings,
get thee up to the heights and sing!
Proclaim to a desolate people
the coming of their King.
Like the flowers of the field they perish,
like grass our works decay,
the power and pomp of nations
shall pass like a dream away;

but the word of our God endureth,
the arm of the Lord is strong;
he stands in the midst of nations,
and he will right the wrong.
He shall feed his flock like a shepherd,
the lambs he'll gently hold;
to pastures of peace he'll lead them,
and bring them safe to his fold.

—James Lewis Milligan (1876-1961)

The Great Thanksgiving

TCWS/CW:AEP

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant God of hope: we say thank you
Because you have always kept your promises to your people.
We especially thank you for the gift of your Son, Jesus.
As the days get colder and the nights get longer,
We wait with joy
Because you promised us that Jesus will return.

As we prepare to welcome Jesus into our hearts,
We join saints and angels to sing the song of your people:

Sanctus

EOW p. 57

All Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

Please continue standing as you are able.

Celebrant God of faith: you created the whole universe
And you love each and every one of us, your children.
You sent your Son Jesus to us,
To walk with us and bring us into life.

In ancient times, you inspired your prophets to tell stories about him.
You sent your angels to announce his birth.
When Mary his mother held the son of God in her arms,
She sang him songs about your love.

Jesus taught us how to love one another the way you love us.
When Jesus died and rose to new life,
He promised to return to us,
And to stay with us forever.

We thank you, God, because Jesus will come again.
All Help us welcome Jesus into our hearts.

Celebrant

On the night before he died,
Jesus shared a meal with his friends.

He took the bread, and thanked you.
He broke it, and gave it to them, saying:
Take and eat; this is my body, given for you.
Do this to remember me.

After the meal, Jesus took the cup of wine.
He thanked you, and gave it to them, saying:
Drink this, all of you.
This is my blood,
The new promise of God's unfailing love.
Do this to remember me.

And so we remember:

Jesus Christ has died.

People

Jesus Christ has died.

Celebrant

Jesus Christ is alive.

People

Jesus Christ is alive.

Celebrant

Jesus Christ will come again.

People

Jesus Christ will come again.

Celebrant

God of Joy,
We have gathered around this table
To celebrate and give you thanks.
Send your Holy Spirit to make this bread and wine the Body and Blood of your Son.
And send your Spirit upon us, too,
So that, as we share this holy meal, we can remember that we are your holy people.

God of Peace, stay with us while we wait.
Remind us of your promises to us.
And help us to always give you thanks.
Until, at last, when Jesus comes again,
We can sing, dance, and play around your table
With him and all your saints and angels.
We pray all of this in the name of Jesus.
By him, with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
We worship you for ever and ever.

All

AMEN.

The Lord's Prayer

BCP p. 364*

Celebrant And now, we pray using the prayer that Jesus taught us, saying:
All Our Father in heaven,
 hallowed be your Name,
 your kingdom come,
 your will be done,
 on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
 as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
 and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
 and the glory are yours,
 now and for ever. Amen.

The Fraction and Invitation

BCP p. 364/St. Augustine (1 Corinthians)

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread. Silence is kept.

Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God.
Behold what you are.
People May we become what we receive.

Please be seated.

Clergy will distribute communion in one kind—bread only—and will come directly to you where you are seated.
Please stand to receive the host.

Communion Anthem

Christ Hath a Garden

Eleanor Daley (b. 1955)

Christ hath a garden walled around,
A Paradise of fruitful ground,
Chosen by love and fenced by grace
From out the world's wide wilderness.

Like trees of spice his servants stand,
There planted by his mighty hand;
By Eden's gracious streams, that flow
To feed their beauty where they grow.

Awake, O wind of heav'n, and bear
Their sweetest perfume through the air:
Stir up, O south, the boughs that bloom,
Till the beloved Master come:

That he may come, and linger yet
Among the trees that he hath set;
That he may evermore be seen
To walk among the springing green.

—Robert Bridges

Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

TCWS

Please stand as you are able.

All Loving God,
in this holy meal,
you have reminded us that we are all your children,
members of your Great Family.
As we leave this place,
keep us safe,
help us to grow,
and inspire us to share your love with the world.
Amen.

The Blessing

BOS p. 23

Celebrant May the Sun of Righteousness shine upon you and scatter the darkness from before your path;
and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you,
and remain with you always.

All Amen.

Closing Prayer

TCWS

All God be in my head,
God be in my heart.
God be in my left hand,
God be in my right hand,
God be in my whole life.
Thanks be to God!

Closing Hymn

Comfort, Comfort Ye My People

Psalm 42, melody Claude Goudimel (1514-1572)

Dismissal

BCP p. 366

After the Dismissal, please be seated.

The ushers will dismiss the congregation row by row, from front to back. Please exit as directed.

Preacher Let us go forth into the world, rejoicing in the power of the Spirit.

People Thanks be to God.

Trinity Church Cemetery and Mausoleum

Choosing a final resting place can be a daunting task. Planning for our own and our loved ones' passing is challenging; however, securing a burial option in advance is an act of love and care, providing peace of mind to all involved and greatly reducing stress at the time of passing. The caring staff at Trinity Church Cemetery and Mausoleum is here to compassionately serve and guide you through the process, whether you have an immediate need or are planning. We offer the only active place of burial in Manhattan, with affordable above-ground interment options for people of all faiths.

Trinity Church Cemetery and Mausoleum offers interment options for both cremated and casketed remains. Listed on the National Register of Historic Places, the beautiful grounds of the historic cemetery and the modern community mausoleum offer a peaceful, sacred place to visit and honor loved ones who have passed. This is a timeless place of memorial honoring many influential New Yorkers including John Jacob Astor, John James Audubon, Eliza Jumel, Mayor Edward I. Koch, and Governor John Adams Dix.

Congregational Voice

“Understand this, my dear brothers and sisters: You must all be quick to listen, slow to speak, and slow to get angry” (James 1:19 NLT). I think this verse is easy to understand. It's plain. One should always listen and be slow to speak. And I would think that if one were to listen more and be not so quick to speak, they'd be slower to anger. —Oscar Clay Maxwell III

FLOWERS

Greenery will decorate the church during Advent.

To donate Christmas poinsettias, email Flowers@trinitywallstreet.org by Friday, December 10.

This service is based on The Holy Eucharist Rite Two, which begins on page 355 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Scripture readings are appointed by the Revised Common Lectionary, Episcopal (RCL) and are excerpted from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible. Other liturgical elements may include materials compiled by Trinity Church staff (TCWS) from publications including Enriching Our Worship (EOW), Common Worship: Additional Eucharistic Prayers (CW:AEP), and other contemporary liturgical resources. An asterisk (*) denotes that the text is adapted from the original source material. Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982, Lift Every Voice and Sing II (LEVAS), Voices Found (VF), My Heart Sings Out (MHSO), and Wonder, Love, and Praise (WLP).
