NOONDAY PRAYER:

MONDAY IN EASTER WEEK

April 10, 2023, 12:05pm

TRINITY CHURCH
WALL STREET

Welcome to The Chapel of All Saints

Welcome to Trinity Church Wall Street, a vibrant and growing Episcopal parish of more than 1,500 members. Over the past 325 years, the fabric of Trinity has been woven by the Spirit from the lives and gifts of diverse people; their desire to live their faith through worship, service, study, and stewardship; and the ever-evolving life of New York City itself.

Our parish is guided by its mission to share God's love for all people. Together, we seek to build relationships with one another and with our neighbors, to cultivate compassion, to deepen our knowledge and spiritual practices, to work for justice rooted in essential human dignity, and to live as conscientious contributors to the life of our city and the Anglican Communion worldwide. As we grow together in service and love, we know ourselves, first and foremost, as followers of Jesus.

We are delighted to welcome you today; thank you for the gift of your participation and prayers. If you are new to Trinity, please introduce yourself to a member of the clergy.

About this Service

Noonday Prayer

This service of noonday prayer includes an opening versicle, a selection from the psalms, scripture lessons, and prayers from the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). It is based on the “little offices” of Christian monasticism, historically said at 9am, 12 noon, and 3pm, which were known as the third, sixth, and ninth hours of the day. Private devotions at these hours associated with the events of the Passion have been observed by Christians since the second century. Although these hours of prayer were included in the Primers of King Henry VIII and Queen Elizabeth, these offices were not included in any Prayer Books before the twentieth century. The 1979 BCP is the first American Prayer Book to include this office.

Unlike Holy Eucharist, which requires an ordained priest to administer the Sacrament, a layperson may officiate the liturgies of the Daily Office, which also includes Morning Prayer and Evening Prayer. At Trinity Church, we rarely have the opportunity to offer our midday prayers using this unique rite.

Prelude

Welcome

The Officiant greets the congregation.

Versicle and Response

BCP p. 103

At the sound of the bell, please stand.

Officiant O God, make speed to save us.

People O Lord, make haste to help us.

All Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit:
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen. Alleluia.

The Psalm

Psalm 118:19–24

BCP p. 762

Please be seated.

Said antiphonally, alternating between the Leader and People.

The Gloria Patri is said by all.

Leader Open for me the gates of righteousness; *
I will enter them;
I will offer thanks to the LORD.

People “This is the gate of the LORD; *
he who is righteous may enter.”

Leader I will give thanks to you, for you answered me *
and have become my salvation.

People The same stone which the builders rejected *
has become the chief cornerstone.

Leader This is the LORD’s doing, *
and it is marvelous in our eyes.

People On this day the LORD has acted; *
we will rejoice and be glad in it.

All Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: *
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

The First Reading

Acts 2:14, 22b–32

Reader

A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed the crowd, “Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say.

“Jesus of Nazareth, a man attested to you by God with deeds of power, wonders, and signs that God did through him among you, as you yourselves know—this man, handed over to you according to the definite plan and foreknowledge of God, you crucified and killed by the hands of those outside the law. But God raised him up, having freed him from death, because it was impossible for him to be held in its power. For David says concerning him,

‘I saw the Lord always before me,
for he is at my right hand so that I will not be shaken;
therefore my heart was glad, and my tongue rejoiced;
moreover my flesh will live in hope.
For you will not abandon my soul to Hades,
or let your Holy One experience corruption.
You have made known to me the ways of life;
you will make me full of gladness with your presence.’

“Fellow Israelites, I may say to you confidently of our ancestor David that he both died and was buried, and his tomb is with us to this day. Since he was a prophet, he knew that God had sworn with an oath to him that he would put one of his descendants on his throne. Foreseeing this, David spoke of the resurrection of the Messiah, saying,

‘He was not abandoned to Hades,
nor did his flesh experience corruption.’

This Jesus God raised up, and of that all of us are witnesses.”

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

People

Thanks be to God.

The Gospel Reading

Matthew 28:9–15

Officiant

A Reading from the Gospel according to Matthew.

Jesus met Mary Magdalene and the other Mary and said, “Greetings!” And they came to him, took hold of his feet, and worshiped him. Then Jesus said to them, “Do not be afraid; go and tell my brothers to go to Galilee; there they will see me.”

While they were going, some of the guard went into the city and told the chief priests everything that had happened. After the priests had assembled with the elders, they devised a plan to give a large sum of money to the soldiers, telling them, “You must say, ‘His disciples came by night and stole him away while we were asleep.’ If this comes to the governor’s ears, we will satisfy him and keep you out of trouble.” So they took the money and did as they were directed. And this story is still told among the Jews to this day.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

People

Thanks be to God.
