God has gone up with a shout, the Lord with the sound of a trumpet.
PSALM 47:5
Welcome to Trinity Church

Welcome to Trinity Church Wall Street, a vibrant and growing Episcopal parish of more than 1,500 members. Over the past 325 years, the fabric of Trinity has been woven by the Spirit from the lives and gifts of diverse people; their desire to live their faith through worship, service, study, and stewardship; and the ever-evolving life of New York City itself.

Our parish is guided by its mission to share God’s love for all people. Together, we seek to build relationships with one another and with our neighbors, to cultivate compassion, to deepen our knowledge and spiritual practices, to work for justice rooted in essential human dignity, and to live as conscientious contributors to the life of our city and the Anglican Communion worldwide. As we grow together in service and love, we know ourselves, first and foremost, as followers of Jesus.

We are delighted to welcome you today; thank you for the gift of your participation and prayers. If you are new to Trinity, please introduce yourself to a member of the clergy. All are warmly invited to join us for Coffee Hour at Parish Hall—behind the church and over the bridge.

About this Service

Ascension Day, observed last week, is one of the seven Principal Feasts of the Episcopal Church. Celebrated on the 40th day after Easter (and therefore always on a Thursday), it commemorates the day when Jesus ascended into heaven in the sight of his disciples. Each time we say the Nicene Creed (BCP p. 358) or the Apostles’ Creed (BCP p. 96), Christians affirm our belief that Jesus both rose from the dead and is now exalted in glory.

The appointed scriptures and prayers during the final ten days of the Easter Season, from Ascension Day through the Day of Pentecost, liturgically echo the themes of this celebration. While not an official season in the Church calendar, Ascensiontide offers a glimpse of the transition between the ministry of Jesus’ apostles in his presence to their sending out, full of the Holy Spirit, to proclaim the Good News.

Prelude

Shine on Me  Spiritual, arr. Rollo A. Dilworth (b. 1970)

Shine on me, oh, shine on me.
I wonder if the lighthouse will shine on me.

Is a light shinin’ above?
Is it shinin’ above in the heavens for me?
I’m wonderin’ if there’s a light that is shinin’ above in the heavens for me.
Will it shine on me?

The Lord is My Shepherd  Traditional folk song

The Lord is my Shepherd,
I’ll walk with him always.
He leads me by still waters,
I’ll walk with him always.
Always, always,
I’ll walk with him always.

—Psalm 23:1–2

Opening Acclamation  BCP p. 355

At the sound of the bell, please stand and turn to face the procession.

Celebrant  Alleluia. Christ is risen.
People  The Lord is risen indeed. Alleluia.

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant God be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

O God, the King of glory, you have exalted your only Son Jesus Christ with great triumph to your kingdom in heaven: Do not leave us comfortless, but send us your Holy Spirit to strengthen us, and exalt us to that place where our Savior Christ has gone before; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, in glory everlasting.

All Amen.

Please be seated.

The Word of God

The First Reading

Acts 1:15–17, 21–26

Reader A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

In those days Peter stood up among the believers (together the crowd numbered about one hundred twenty persons) and said, “Friends, the scripture had to be fulfilled, which the Holy Spirit through David foretold concerning Judas, who became a guide for those who arrested Jesus—for he was numbered among us and was allotted his share in this ministry.

“So one of the men who have accompanied us during all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us, beginning from the baptism of John until the day when he was taken up from us—one of these must become a witness with us to his resurrection.” So they proposed two, Joseph called Barsabbas, who was also known as Justus, and Matthias. Then they prayed and said, “Lord, you know everyone’s heart. Show us which one of these two you have chosen to take the place in this ministry and apostleship from which Judas turned aside to go to his own place.” And they cast lots for them, and the lot fell on Matthias; and he was added to the eleven apostles.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

People Thanks be to God.
Leader: Happy are they who have not walked in the counsel of the wicked, *
nor lingered in the way of sinners,
nor sat in the seats of the scornful!

People: Their delight is in the law of the LORD, *
and they meditate on his law day and night.

Leader: They are like trees planted by streams of water, bearing fruit in due season, with leaves that do not wither; *
everything they do shall prosper.

People: It is not so with the wicked; *
they are like chaff which the wind blows away.

Leader: Therefore the wicked shall not stand upright when judgment comes, *
nor the sinner in the council of the righteous.

People: For the LORD knows the way of the righteous, *
but the way of the wicked is doomed.
The Second Reading

A Reading from the First Letter of John.

If we receive human testimony, the testimony of God is greater; for this is the testimony of God that he has testified to his Son. Those who believe in the Son of God have the testimony in their hearts. Those who do not believe in God have made him a liar by not believing in the testimony that God has given concerning his Son. And this is the testimony: God gave us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. Whoever has the Son has life; whoever does not have the Son of God does not have life.

I write these things to you who believe in the name of the Son of God, so that you may know that you have eternal life.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

People  Thanks be to God.

Gradual

Please stand and turn to face the Gospel as it passes.

Choir  Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!
All  Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

Choir  Ever since the world began, your throne has been established; you are from everlasting. Alleluia.
All  Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

Words: Psalm 93:3
Music: Trinity Missa Brevis, Jonathan Woody (b. 1983)
Deacon  The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People  Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon  Jesus prayed for his disciples, saying, “I have made your name known to those whom you gave me from the world. They were yours, and you gave them to me, and they have kept your word. Now they know that everything you have given me is from you; for the words that you gave to me I have given to them, and they have received them and know in truth that I came from you; and they have believed that you sent me. I am asking on their behalf; I am not asking on behalf of the world, but on behalf of those whom you gave me, because they are yours. All mine are yours, and yours are mine; and I have been glorified in them. And now I am no longer in the world, but they are in the world, and I am coming to you. Holy Father, protect them in your name that you have given me, so that they may be one, as we are one. While I was with them, I protected them in your name that you have given me. I guarded them, and not one of them was lost except the one destined to be lost, so that the scripture might be fulfilled. But now I am coming to you, and I speak these things in the world so that they may have my joy made complete in themselves. I have given them your word, and the world has hated them because they do not belong to the world, just as I do not belong to the world. I am not asking you to take them out of the world, but I ask you to protect them from the evil one. They do not belong to the world, just as I do not belong to the world. Sanctify them in the truth; your word is truth. As you have sent me into the world, so I have sent them into the world. And for their sakes I sanctify myself, so that they also may be sanctified in truth.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

People  Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon  The Rev. Michael A. Bird  Vicar
Let us stand and profess our faith in the words of the Nicene Creed.

We believe in one God,
   the Father, the Almighty,
   maker of heaven and earth,
   of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
   the only Son of God,
   eternally begotten of the Father,
   God from God, Light from Light,
   true God from true God,
   begotten, not made,
   of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
   he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
   he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
   and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
   he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
   in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
   and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
   and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
   who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
   and the life of the world to come. Amen.
Leader Almighty God, our heavenly Creator; you have exalted Jesus Christ to your right hand and made him head over all things for his body, the Church: hear us as we pray for your people throughout the world, remembering especially Michael our Presiding Bishop; Matthew, Allen, and Mary our diocesan bishops; and Justin the Archbishop of Canterbury.

Lord, in your mercy

People Hear our prayer.

Leader God Eternal, the Ancient of Days; you have given Jesus all authority in heaven and on earth: hear us as we pray for those who govern, especially Joseph our president, Kathleen our governor, and Eric our mayor.

Lord, in your mercy

People Hear our prayer.

Leader God our Shepherd; your Son has promised to be with us always, to the end of the age: hear us as we pray for this congregation. Grant that we may be so changed by the presence of Jesus that those we encounter might be inspired to seek him.

Lord, in your mercy

People Hear our prayer.

Leader O God our Redeemer, whose Christ ever lives to make intercession for us: hear us as we pray for those in any need or trouble.

Lord, in your mercy

People Hear our prayer.

Leader Heavenly Father, your Son has borne our humanity into the heavenly realms: hear us as we remember those whose earthly sojourns are over, and whose lives are now hidden with you.

The people may add their own petitions or remembrances.

Lord, in your mercy

People Hear our prayer.

Celebrant O God, the architect of Creation: we ask that you would continue to direct and strengthen the mission of the Church. May the hearts and hands of your people be tools by which the Holy Spirit forges unity and love, always to your glory and the welfare of your people; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who lives and reigns for ever and ever.

All Amen.
The Peace

_Celebrant_ The peace of the Lord be always with you.

_People_ And also with you.

_The People greet one another in the name of the Lord._

The Offertory

“For all things come from you, and of your own have we given you.” — 1 Chronicles 29:14

_Offerings at Trinity are applied to the care of our neighbors; particularly to our food assistance ministries Compassion Meals and Compassion Market, and in support of other food banks across lower Manhattan. Last year we were able to provide more than 2.4 million meals for our food insecure neighbors. (trinitywallstreet.org/social-justice/food-assistance)_

_Please place your gift in the basket at the rear of the nave before or after the service, or visit trinitywallstreet.org/donate for additional ways to give. Gifts received are blessed immediately after the service with this prayer: Generous God, at your table we present this money, symbol of the work you have given us to do; use it, use us, in the service of your world to the glory of your name. Amen._

Offertory Anthem

_I Believe This Is Jesus_
_Spiritual, arr. Undine Smith Moore (1904–1989)_

I believe this is Jesus;
Come and see, oh, come and see.

The light of God shines in his face;
He offers all his pard’ning grace.

Yes, yes, Lord.
Yes, yes, yes, come and see, oh, my Lord.
Oh, I believe this is Jesus;
Come and see, come and see.

—Traditional

Censing of the Gifts

_Please stand._

Let my prayer be set forth in thy sight as incense.

—Psalm 141:2
It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, through your dearly beloved Son Jesus Christ our Lord. After his glorious resurrection he openly appeared to his disciples, and in their sight ascended into heaven, to prepare a place for us; that where he is, there we might also be, and reign with him in glory.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:
Sanctus and Benedictus

Music: Trinity Missa Brevis, Jonathan Woody (b. 1983)

Please continue standing or kneel.

Celebrant

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All

Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.
Celebrant: We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All: Amen.

The Lord’s Prayer

Celebrant: And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

All: Our Father, who art in heaven,

    hallowed be thy Name,
    thy kingdom come,
    thy will be done,

    on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,

    as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,

    but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,

    and the power, and the glory,

    for ever and ever. Amen.
The Fraction and Invitation

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread. Silence is kept.

Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God.
Behold what you are.

People May we become what we receive.

Please be seated.

Clergy will distribute communion from stations in front of the altar. If you need communion brought to you, please let an usher or sacristan know.

It is our custom to receive the bread in the upturned palms of our hands, and eat it immediately. Gluten-free wafers are available; please let the minister know that you need one.

Those who wish to receive wine should partake by sipping directly from the chalice (intincting, or dipping one’s wafer into the wine, is no longer permitted). Please use your hands to gently assist the server in guiding the chalice to your lips.

If you do not wish to receive communion you are invited to come forward to receive a blessing, indicating your desire by crossing your arms over your chest.

Communion Anthem

O for a Closer Walk with God

O for a closer walk with God,
A calm and heavenly frame;
A light to shine upon the road
That leads me to the Lamb!

Return, O holy Dove, return,
Sweet messenger of rest;
I hate the sins that made thee mourn,
And drove thee from my breast.

So shall my walk be close with God,
Calm and serene my frame;
So purer light shall mark the road
That leads me to the Lamb.

—William Cowper (1731–1800)
Communion Hymn

Please join in singing and stand at the last verse.

Taste and see. Taste and see the goodness of the Lord. O taste and see. Taste and see the goodness of the Lord.

1. I will bless the Lord at all times.
2. Glorify the Lord with me.
3. Worship the Lord all you people.

His praise shall always be on my lips: my soul shall name.
You’ll want for nothing if you ask: Taste and Post-Communion Prayer

All Almighty and everliving God, we thank you for feeding us with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; and for assuring us in these holy mysteries that we are living members of the Body of your Son, and heirs of your eternal kingdom.

And now, Father, send us out to do the work you have given us to do, to love and serve you
as faithful witnesses of Christ our Lord.
To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit,
be honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

The Blessing

Celebrant May the risen Christ who has passed into the heavens clothe you with power from on high; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you and remain with you always.

All Amen.

Please turn to face the procession as it passes.

Saturday, June 29, 8am–9pm
Travel with fellow parishioners to see the play Daniel at Sight & Sound Theatres in Lancaster, PA: “The well-beloved story of Daniel, as he faced a dangerous choice, reveals to us how his trust in God remained steadfast through every test of faith.” We’ll depart early, have lunch together, see the afternoon show, and be back at Trinity Commons by 9pm. Cost: $85/ticket. Transportation and lunch provided by the Hospitality Committee. Space is limited. Register by June 16 at trinitywallstreet.org/daniel.

BULLETIN BOARD
Community Athletics
Tuesdays–Fridays, Trinity Commons
Make friends, get moving, and care for your mental and physical health in classes for the whole community. From Pilates to pickleball, tai chi to dance meditation, there’s something for everyone. Find out more at trinitywallstreet.org/athletics.

Need Help? Call the Resource Line!
Mondays–Fridays, 2–5pm
If you or someone you know needs a helping hand, call 917.594.6300 for our Resource Connections program. Trinity’s Outreach team helps guests access housing, legal aid, mental health services, immigration assistance, SNAP benefits, and other services. Learn more at trinitywallstreet.org/resourceline.
Be a Trinity Ambassador!
Share your gift of hospitality and love for Trinity with all who cross our threshold. Ambassadors are needed to welcome guests to Trinity Church, St. Paul’s Chapel, and Trinity Commons in two-hour shifts from 10am–4pm on weekdays. Only two shifts every three months are required, and training is provided. Learn more by contacting Maggy Laraque at TrinityAmbassadors@trinitywallstreet.org.

Join Trinity’s Worship Leader Team
New volunteers are always welcome to support our worship during Sunday services. Roles include crucifers, greeters, lectors, subdeacons, thurifers, torchbearers, and ushers. We are currently recruiting volunteers ages 12 and up for the 8am and 11:15am services, and all ages for the 9am service. Adult volunteers are required to complete a background screening and Ministry Safe training. For more information, contact Dane Miller at Sacristans@trinitywallstreet.org.

Go Green!
How can you help protect harbors from storm damage? Billion Oyster Project wants volunteers. They are restoring oyster reefs to New York Harbor in collaboration with NYC communities. Oyster reefs can protect our city from storm damage by softening the blow of large waves, reducing flooding, and preventing erosion along the shorelines. Learn more and get involved at billionoysterproject.org.

Congregational Voice
“Finally, brothers and sisters, whatever is true, whatever is noble, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is admirable—if anything is excellent or praiseworthy—think about such things” (Philippians 4:8 NIV). We are exposed to so much negativity these days. Many of us are in a dark mess of the mind because of it. I hold onto these words. Find your happy thought. In Jesus’s name. —Shelley Sanderson

This service conforms to The Holy Eucharist: Rite Two, which begins on page 355 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Scripture readings are appointed by the Revised Common Lectionary (RCL) and are excerpted from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible. Other liturgical elements may include materials compiled by Trinity Church staff (TCWS) from publications including Common Worship: Times and Seasons (CW:TS), The Book of Occasional Services 2022 (BOS), and contemporary liturgical resources. An asterisk (*) denotes that the text is adapted from the original source material. Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982, Lift Every Voice and Sing II (LEVAS), and Wonder, Love, and Praise (WLP).
