TRINITY CHURCH
WALL STREET

Welcome to The Chapel of All Saints

Welcome to Trinity Church Wall Street, a vibrant and growing Episcopal parish of more than 1,500 members. Over the past 325 years, the fabric of Trinity has been woven by the Spirit from the lives and gifts of diverse people; their desire to live their faith through worship, service, study, and stewardship; and the ever-evolving life of New York City itself.

Our parish is guided by its mission to share God's love for all people. Together, we seek to build relationships with one another and with our neighbors, to cultivate compassion, to deepen our knowledge and spiritual practices, to work for justice rooted in essential human dignity, and to live as conscientious contributors to the life of our city and the Anglican Communion worldwide. As we grow together in service and love, we know ourselves, first and foremost, as followers of Jesus.

We are delighted to welcome you today; thank you for the gift of your participation and prayers. If you are new to Trinity, please introduce yourself to a member of the clergy.

About this Service

The Season after Pentecost

Our current liturgical season, the Season after Pentecost, is by far the longest of the Episcopal church year. It begins the day after Pentecost and ends the day before the First Sunday of Advent. Since the date of Easter changes every year—and the Day of Pentecost is always 50 days after Easter—the length of the season varies as well, ranging from 24–29 weeks in length. This season is sometimes called Ordinary Time, a phrase borrowed from the Roman Catholic Church.

Preparation

Prelude

Opening Acclamation

BCP p. 355

At the sound of the bell, please stand.

Celebrant Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

People And blessed be God's kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

Canticle

A Song of True Motherhood

EOW p. 40

All God chose to be our mother in all things  and so made the foundation of his work,
most humbly and most pure, in the Virgin's womb.
God, the perfect wisdom of all, *
arrayed himself in this humble place.
Christ came in our poor flesh *
to share a mother's care.
Our mothers bear us for pain and for death; *
our true mother, Jesus, bears us for joy and endless life.
Christ carried us within him in love and travail, *
until the full time of his passion.
And when all was completed and he had carried us so for joy, *
still all this could not satisfy the power of his wonderful love.
All that we owe is redeemed in truly loving God, *
for the love of Christ works in us;
Christ is the one whom we love.

The Collect of the Day

BCP p. 231

Celebrant God be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty God, the fountain of all wisdom, you know our necessities before we ask and our ignorance in asking: Have compassion on our weakness, and mercifully give us those things which for our unworthiness we dare not, and for our blindness we cannot ask; through the worthiness of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

All Amen.

Please be seated.

The Word of God

The First Reading

Jeremiah 3:14–18

Reader A Reading from the Book of Jeremiah.

Return, O faithless children,
says the LORD,
for I am your master;
I will take you, one from a city and two from a family,
and I will bring you to Zion.

I will give you shepherds after my own heart, who will feed you with knowledge and understanding. And when you have multiplied and increased in the land, in those days, says the LORD, they shall no longer say, “The ark of the covenant of the LORD.” It shall not come to mind, or be remembered, or missed; nor shall another one be made. At that time Jerusalem shall be called the throne of the LORD, and all nations shall gather to it, to the presence of the LORD in Jerusalem, and they shall no longer stubbornly follow their own evil will. In those days the house of Judah shall join the house of Israel, and together they shall come from the land of the north to the land that I gave your ancestors for a heritage.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

People Thanks be to God.

Sequence

Please stand.

A musician offers a brief improvisation.

The Holy Gospel

Matthew 13:18–23

Celebrant The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Celebrant Jesus said, “Hear then the parable of the sower. When anyone hears the word of the kingdom and does not understand it, the evil one comes and snatches away what is sown in the heart; this is what was sown on the path. As for what was sown on rocky ground, this is the one who hears the word and immediately receives it with joy; yet such a person has no root, but endures only for a while, and when trouble or persecution arises on account of the word, that person immediately falls away. As for what was sown among thorns, this is the one who hears the word, but the cares of the world and the lure of wealth choke the word, and it yields nothing. But as for what was sown on good soil, this is the one who hears the word and understands it, who indeed bears fruit and yields, in one case a hundredfold, in another sixty, and in another thirty.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Homily

The Rev. Patrick Williams
Priest and Associate Director, Pastoral Care

The Prayers of the People

BCP p. 392*/p. 360

Please stand.

Leader In peace, we pray to you, Lord God.

Silence

People For all people in their daily life and work;
For our families, friends, and neighbors, and for those who are alone.

Leader For this community and nation—remembering especially Joseph our President,
Kathleen our Governor, and Eric our Mayor—and for the world;

People For all who work for justice, freedom, and peace.

Leader For the just and proper use of your creation;

People For the victims of hunger, fear, injustice, and oppression.

Leader For all who are in danger, sorrow, or any kind of trouble;

People For those who minister to the sick, the friendless, and the needy.

Leader For the peace and unity of the Church of God;

People For all who proclaim the Gospel, and all who seek the Truth.

Leader For Michael our Presiding Bishop; Sean our presiding bishop-elect; Matthew, Allen, and Mary our bishops; for Justin the Archbishop of Canterbury; and for all bishops and other ministers;

People For all who serve God in the Church.

Leader For the special needs and concerns of this congregation.

Silence

The People may add their own petitions.

Hear us, Lord;

People For your mercy is great.

Leader We thank you, Lord, for all the blessings of this life.

Silence

The People may add their own thanksgivings.

We will exalt you, O God our King;

People And praise your Name for ever and ever.

Leader We pray for all who have died, that they may have a place in your eternal kingdom.

Silence

The People may add their own petitions.

People Lord, let your loving-kindness be upon them;
Who put their trust in you.

Celebrant We pray to you also for the forgiveness of our sins.

Silence

All Have mercy upon us, most merciful Father;
in your compassion forgive us our sins,
known and unknown,
things done and left undone;
and so uphold us by your Spirit that we may live and serve you in newness of life, to the honor and glory of your Name;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

All Amen.

The Peace

BCP p. 360

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

The People greet one another in the name of the Lord.

Welcome

Please be seated.

The Holy Communion

The Offertory

“For all things come from you, and of your own have we given you.” —1 Chronicles 29:14

Offerings at Trinity are applied to the care of our neighbors; particularly to our food assistance ministries Compassion Meals and Compassion Market, and in support of other food banks across lower Manhattan. Last year we were able to provide more than 2.4 million meals for our food insecure neighbors. (trinitywallstreet.org/social-justice/food-assistance)

Please place your gift in the basket at the rear of the nave before or after the service, or visit trinitywallstreet.org/donate for additional ways to give. Gifts received are blessed immediately after the service with this prayer: Generous God, at your table we present this money, symbol of the work you have given us to do; use it, use us, in the service of your world to the glory of your name. Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

EOW p. 60*/BCP p. 362

Please stand.

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant We praise you and we bless you, holy and gracious God, source of life abundant. From before time you made ready the creation. Your Spirit moved over the deep and brought all things into being: sun, moon, and stars; earth, winds, and waters; and every living thing.

You made us in your image, and taught us to walk in your ways. But we rebelled against you, and wandered far away; and yet, as a mother cares for her children, you would not forget us. Time and again you called us to live in the fullness of your love.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus and Benedictus

EOW p. 60

All Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

Please continue standing.

Celebrant

Glory and honor and praise to you, holy and living God. To deliver us from the power of sin and death and to reveal the riches of your grace, you looked with favor upon Mary, your willing servant, that she might conceive and bear a son, Jesus the holy child of God.

Living among us, Jesus loved us. He broke bread with outcasts and sinners, healed the sick, and proclaimed good news to the poor.

On the night before he died for us, Jesus was at table with his friends. He took bread, gave thanks to you, broke it, and gave it to them, and said: "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine. Again, he gave thanks to you, gave it to them, and said: "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Now gathered at your table, O God of all creation, and remembering Christ, crucified and risen, who was and is and is to come, we offer to you our gifts of bread and wine, and ourselves, a living sacrifice.

Pour out your Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Body and Blood of Christ. Breathe your Spirit over the whole earth and make us your new creation, the Body of Christ given for the world you have made.

In the fullness of time bring us, with all your saints, from every tribe and language and people and nation, to feast at the banquet prepared from the foundation of the world.

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, to you be honor, glory, and praise, for ever and ever.

All

AMEN.

The Lord's Prayer

BCP p. 364

Celebrant As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,
All Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your Name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen.

The Fraction and Invitation

BCP p. 364/St. Augustine (1 Corinthians)

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread. Silence is kept.

Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God.
Behold what you are.
People May we become what we receive.

Please be seated.

Clergy will distribute communion from stations in front of the altar. If you need communion brought to you, please let an usher or sacristan know.

It is our custom to receive the bread in the upturned palms of our hands, and eat it immediately. Gluten-free wafers are available; please let the minister know that you need one.

Those who wish to receive wine should partake by sipping directly from the chalice (intincting, or dipping one's wafer into the wine, is no longer permitted). Please use your hands to gently assist the server in guiding the chalice to your lips.

If you do not wish to receive communion you are invited to come forward to receive a blessing, indicating your desire by crossing your arms over your chest.

Post-Communion Prayer

BCP p. 365

Please stand.

Celebrant Let us pray.

All Eternal God, heavenly Father,
you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food
in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood.
Send us now into the world in peace,
and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart;
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Blessing

BCP p. 339*

Celebrant The peace of God, which passes all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you, and remain with you always.

All Amen.

Dismissal

BCP p. 366

Celebrant Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

If you would like to remain in your seat to listen to the Postlude, please do.

COMING SOON

Visit to the Whitney Biennial

Saturday, August 3, 11am

Whitney Museum of American Art

Join Trinity's Congregational Arts committee for a day at the Whitney Biennial, the longest-running survey of contemporary art in the United States. Subtitled Even Better Than the Real Thing, this year's exhibition explores how artificial intelligence (AI) is complicating our understanding of identity and reality. Space is limited. RSVP to Maggy Laraque at MLaraque@trinitywallstreet.org by Monday, July 29.

Sunday Afternoon Music

Sunday, August 4, 2-5pm, St. Paul's Chapel

Grace Beat's Ecstatic Refuge

Jazz pianist and composer Mina Cho, bassist Max Ridley, percussionist Insoo Kim, and drummer Yeongjin Kim perform as the Grace Beat Quartet, an ensemble blending traditional Korean music with jazz rhythms. This afternoon's program will explore how rhythmic traditions have offered refuge and resilience throughout human history, including our present moment of conflict, war, and post-COVID recovery. Reception follows; all are welcome. Presented by Trinity Congregational Arts Allegro. RSVP at trinitywallstreet.org/allegro. For information, contact Deborah E. Hope at allegromusicministry@earthlink.net.

Mission Advocacy, Racial Justice, and Reconciliation Retreat

August 9–11, Trinity Retreat Center

Come pray, reflect, and consider your unique gifts for mission advocacy, racial justice, and reconciliation. By means of deep reflection, unlearn the norms of white supremacy culture, and untether from principalities and powers. You will also explore how rest can enable the theological imagination to move from simply professing faith to embodying it. See how God is calling you to a deeper level of spiritual commitment to love and serve the Lord. Learn more at trinityretreatcenter.org.

Clay Wheel Spinning Workshop

Saturday, August 17, 1–3pm

Clayhouse Brooklyn Studio

Are you new to pottery? Join Trinity's Congregational Arts committee for a beginner's workshop, where we'll learn the basics of throwing clay on the wheel. Space is limited. RSVP to Maggy Laraque at MLaraque@trinitywallstreet.org by Monday, August 12.

Children & Families Summer Retreat

August 23–25, Trinity Retreat Center

Enjoy the last days of summer and get ready for the school year with the Trinity community. Spend time in nature, reunite with other Trinity families, and make new friends. Total cost for two nights is $200 per adult, $100 per child up to age 12; children age four and under attend for free. Learn more and register at trinitywallstreet.org/familyretreat.

Being With

Beginning September 2024, Online

Explore life's biggest questions — in community

Being With is a 10-week course exploring questions about faith, meaning, and purpose through stories shared in community. In September, we'll launch a new session of online small groups for New Yorkers seeking to make new friends and discover the sacred in their everyday lives. Learn more and fill out an interest form at trinitywallstreet.org/beingwith.

Education for Ministry

Beginning September 2024, Online

Looking to make a commitment to Christian formation and deepen your faith in community? A new Trinity-sponsored Education for Ministry (EfM) group is forming now. EfM is an intensive four-year program created by the School of Theology at Sewanee: University of the South. Employing small-group study, discussion, prayer, worship, and reflection, EfM cohorts journey together through scripture, church history, and more. To learn more about EfM at Trinity and joining the group starting this fall, email ChristianFormation@trinitywallstreet.org.

Gathering the Harvest:

Body, Mind, and Spirit Retreat

September 6–8, Trinity Retreat Center

Join the retreat center's culinary staff during the harvest for three days of farm-to-table wellness and renewal. Spend time in silent, contemplative harvesting on the retreat center's farm, taking mindful walks along the Housatonic River, and gathering for simple, healthy meals around a common table. This retreat will focus on the mind-body connection and how to improve our spiritual well-being through outdoor activities, prayer, and the simple joy of seasonal fruits and vegetables. Learn more at trinityretreatcenter.org.

Create Your Life:

Write from the Soul Retreat

September 6–8, Trinity Retreat Center

All of us have stories to tell. The most compelling are those written from the heart, the ones that move us and sometimes transform both writer and reader. This retreat will provide a quiet environment to work on a current writing project, begin stories long thought about, or simply immerse in silence to discover what needs to be voiced. Learn more at trinityretreatcenter.org.

BULLETIN BOARD

Downtown Voices Auditions

Interested in joining Downtown Voices?

Auditions for new high-level volunteer singers will be held on Sunday, August 25. The semiprofessional choir is celebrating its 10th anniversary and has an exciting 2024–25 season planned, featuring works by Charles Gounod, Giuseppe Verdi, Thomas Tallis, Frank Martin, and others. Learn more and request an audition at trinitywallstreet.org/downtownvoices.

Need Help? Call the Resource Line!

Mondays–Fridays, 2–5pm

If you or someone you know needs a helping hand, call 917.594.6300 for our Resource Connections program. “O taste and see that the Lord is good; happy are those who take refuge in him” (Psalms 34:8). This is one of my favorite biblical texts. To intimately experience God is actually like “tasting” the goodness that is afforded us when we just believe. Senses are great when helping us experience life.
