

THE 50TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE ORDINATION OF WOMEN IN THE EPISCOPAL CHURCH

July 28, 2024, 9am

Welcome to Trinity Church

Welcome to Trinity Church Wall Street, a vibrant and growing Episcopal parish of more than 1,500 members. Over the past 325 years, the fabric of Trinity has been woven by the Spirit from the lives and gifts of diverse people; their desire to live their faith through worship, service, study, and stewardship; and the ever-evolving life of New York City itself.

Our parish is guided by its mission to share God's love for all people. Together, we seek to build relationships with one another and with our neighbors, to cultivate compassion, to deepen our knowledge and spiritual practices, to work for justice rooted in essential human dignity, and to live as conscientious contributors to the life of our city and the Anglican Communion worldwide. As we grow together in service and love, we know ourselves, first and foremost, as followers of Jesus.

We are delighted to welcome you today; thank you for the gift of your participation and prayers. If you are new to Trinity, please introduce yourself to a member of the clergy. All are warmly invited to join us for coffee hour at Parish Hall—behind the church and over the bridge.

About this Service

The Ordination of Women in the Episcopal Church

Through most of the history of the Christian Church the position of women has been secondary to that of men. During the first half of the twentieth century, as women in the Episcopal Church were seeking to expand their participation in the life of the church, many women became directors of religious education as “deaconesses”—a separate order from male deacons.

The movement for ordination equity gained momentum in 1970 when laywomen were seated for the first time with voting rights at General Convention. A resolution called for eliminating the canonical distinctions between male deacons and female deaconesses. When that motion was adopted, the Episcopal Church was presented with the issue of whether to ordain women as priests and bishops too.

By July 1974, supporters of women's ordination grew restless with the stalled legislative process and a service was scheduled to ordain women to the priesthood. Three retired bishops agreed to preside: Daniel Corrigan, retired bishop suffragan of Colorado; Robert L. DeWitt, recently resigned Bishop of Pennsylvania; and Edward R. Welles, retired Bishop of West Missouri.

Eleven female deacons presented themselves as ready for ordination to the priesthood. These women, who came to be called the “Philadelphia Eleven,” were Merrill Bittner, Alla Bozarth-Campbell, Alison Cheek, Emily Hewitt, Carter Heyward, Suzanne Hiatt, Marie Moorefield, Jeannette Piccard, Betty Schiess, Katrina Swanson, and Nancy Wittig. They were ordained on July 29, 1974 at the Church of the Advocate in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. The ordinations inspired both celebration and controversy in the Episcopal Church.

The Collect of the Day

BCP p. 528

Celebrant God be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

O God of unchangeable power and eternal light: Look favorably on your whole Church, that wonderful and sacred mystery; by the effectual working of your providence, carry out in tranquillity the plan of salvation; let the whole world see and know that things which were cast down are being raised up, and things which had grown old are being made new, and that all things are being brought to their perfection by him through whom all things were made, your Son Jesus Christ our Lord; who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

All Amen.

Please be seated.

The Word of God

The First Reading

Galatians 3:23–29

Reader A Reading from the Letter of Paul to the Galatians.

Now before faith came, we were imprisoned and guarded under the law until faith would be revealed. Therefore the law was our disciplinarian until Christ came, so that we might be justified by faith. But now that faith has come, we are no longer subject to a disciplinarian, for in Christ Jesus you are all children of God through faith. As many of you as were baptized into Christ have clothed yourselves with Christ. There is no longer Jew or Greek, there is no longer slave or free, there is no longer male and female; for all of you are one in Christ Jesus. And if you belong to Christ, then you are Abraham's offspring, heirs according to the promise.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People Thanks be to God.

The Psalm

Psalm 43

BCP p. 644

Leader Give judgment for me, O God, and defend my cause against an ungodly people; *
deliver me from the deceitful and the wicked.

People For you are the God of my strength;
why have you put me from you? ***
and why do I go so heavily while the enemy oppresses me?

Leader Send out your light and your truth, that they may lead me, *
and bring me to your holy hill
and to your dwelling;

People That I may go to the altar of God,
to the God of my joy and gladness; ***
and on the harp I will give thanks to you, O God my God.

Leader Why are you so full of heaviness, O my soul? *
and why are you so disquieted within me?

People Put your trust in God; ***
for I will yet give thanks to him,
who is the help of my countenance, and my God.

The Holy Gospel

Luke 24:1-11

Preacher The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Preacher On the first day of the week, at early dawn, they came to the tomb where they put Jesus, taking the spices that they had prepared. They found the stone rolled away from the tomb, but when they went in, they did not find the body. While they were perplexed about this, suddenly two men in dazzling clothes stood beside them. The women were terrified and bowed their faces to the ground, but the men said to them, "Why do you look for the living among the dead? He is not here, but has risen. Remember how he told you, while he was still in Galilee, that the Son of Man must be handed over to sinners, and be crucified, and on the third day rise again." Then they remembered his words, and returning from the tomb, they told all this to the eleven and to all the rest. Now it was Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and the other women with them who told this to the apostles. But these words seemed to them an idle tale, and they did not believe them.

The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Rev. Kristin Kaulbach Miles
Priest and Director, Parish Life

The Nicene Creed

BCP p. 358*

Please stand.

Celebrant Let us stand and profess our faith in the words of the Nicene Creed.

All We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

WUP p. 327*/TCWS/The Very Rev. Kay Sylvester

Leader Holy and gracious God, you created us in your image. Help us to recognize and honor your likeness in ourselves and one another.

Silence

Holy and faithful God, on this day we remember the first women ordained to the priesthood in the Episcopal Church: Alison, Alla, Betty, Carter, Emily, Jeannette, Katrina, Marie, Merrill, Nancy, and Suzanne.

We thank you for calling them, and for giving them the strength and resolve to answer.

People We thank you, Holy One.

Leader Holy and gift-giving God, you have promised to hear what we ask in Jesus' name. Grant to all people opportunities to serve and to lead in your Church and the world; give them courage and hope so that they might be called to places where they can flourish and experience expanding possibilities.

We thank you for your infinite possibility.

People We thank you, Holy One.

Leader Spirit of hope, we pray for those suffering from violence and broken relationships that threaten to mar your image; help us to seek and find your glory in every human face.

People Hear us, Holy One.

Leader Spirit of compassion, we pray for those navigating illness, isolation, anxiety, or despair. Remind them of the beauty of the light they carry, and bring them to sources of healing and solace.

People Hear us, Holy One.

Leader Spirit of justice, we pray for your Church. As we pursue equity in this congregation, may we rightly model justice and peace for our neighbors.

People Hear us, Holy One.

Leader Spirit of love, we give you thanks for the blessing and wisdom we have received from those we love but see no longer; let your loving kindness be upon those who have died.

People Hear us, Holy One.

Celebrant Holy and gracious God, draw us each day to participate in the renewal of your Church and in the healing of the world. Teach us to value one another, to rely on the breadth of our diverse gifts, and to find unity in sacrificial love through Jesus Christ our Savior.

All Amen.

Confession and Absolution

BCP p. 360

Celebrant Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Silence

All Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

All Amen.

The Peace

BCP p. 360

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

The People greet one another in the name of the Lord.

The Offertory

“For all things come from you, and of your own have we given you.” —1 Chronicles 29:14

Offerings at Trinity are applied to the care of our neighbors; particularly to our food assistance ministries Compassion Meals and Compassion Market, and in support of other food banks across lower Manhattan. Last year we were able to provide more than 2.4 million meals for our food insecure neighbors. (trinitywallstreet.org/social-justice/food-assistance)

Please place your gift in the basket at the rear of the nave before or after the service, or visit trinitywallstreet.org/donate for additional ways to give. Gifts received are blessed immediately after the service with this prayer: Generous God, at your table we present this money, symbol of the work you have given us to do; use it, use us, in the service of your world to the glory of your name. Amen.

Offertory Anthem

Give Us Grace

Joanna Forbes L'Estrange (b. 1971)

REFRAIN:

Give us grace, Almighty Father, so to pray,
as to deserve to be heard this and every day,
to address Thee with our hearts as we sing this with our lips.
Give us grace, Almighty Father, so to pray.

Thou art every where present; from Thee no secret can be hid.
May the knowledge of this teach us to fix our thoughts on Thee,
with reverence and devotion that we pray not in vain.
Give us grace, Almighty Father, so to pray.

Give us a thankful sense of the blessings in which we live,
and of the many, many comforts of our lot;
that we may not deserve to lose them by discontent or indifference.
This we pray.

—“On each return of the night,”
Jane Austen (1775–1817);

The Great Thanksgiving

EOW p. 60*/BCP p. 362

Please stand.

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant We praise you and we bless you, holy and gracious God, source of life abundant. From before time you made ready the creation. Your Spirit moved over the deep and brought all things into being: sun, moon, and stars; earth, winds, and waters; and every living thing.

You made us in your image, and taught us to walk in your ways. But we rebelled against you, and wandered far away; and yet, as a mother cares for her children, you would not forget us. Time and again you called us to live in the fullness of your love.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus and Benedictus

WLP 858*

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Bless - ed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

Music: Land of Rest, American folk melody; arr. Marcia Pruner; harm. Annabel Morris Buchanan (1889–1993)

Please continue standing or kneel.

Celebrant

Glory and honor and praise to you, holy and living God. To deliver us from the power of sin and death and to reveal the riches of your grace, you looked with favor upon Mary, your willing servant, that she might conceive and bear a son, Jesus the holy child of God.

Living among us, Jesus loved us. He broke bread with outcasts and sinners, healed the sick, and proclaimed good news to the poor.

On the night before he died for us, Jesus was at table with his friends. He took bread, gave thanks to you, broke it, and gave it to them, and said: "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine. Again, he gave thanks to you, gave it to them, and said: "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Now gathered at your table, O God of all creation, and remembering Christ, crucified and risen, who was and is and is to come, we offer to you our gifts of bread and wine, and ourselves, a living sacrifice.

Pour out your Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Body and Blood of Christ. Breathe your Spirit over the whole earth and make us your new creation, the Body of Christ given for the world you have made.

In the fullness of time bring us, with all your saints, from every tribe and language and people and nation, to feast at the banquet prepared from the foundation of the world.

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, to you be honor, glory, and praise, for ever and ever.

All

AMEN.

The Lord's Prayer

BCP p. 364*

Celebrant

And now, we pray using the prayer that Jesus taught us, saying:

All

Our Father in heaven,

hallowed be your Name,

your kingdom come,

your will be done,

on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins

as we forgive those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power,

and the glory are yours,

now and for ever. Amen.

Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God.
Behold what you are.

People May we become what we receive.

Please be seated.

Clergy will distribute communion from stations in front of the altar. If you need communion brought to you, please let an usher or sacristan know.

It is our custom to receive the bread in the upturned palms of our hands, and eat it immediately. Gluten-free wafers are available; please let the minister know that you need one.

Those who wish to receive wine should partake by sipping directly from the chalice (intincting, or dipping one's wafer into the wine, is no longer permitted). Please use your hands to gently assist the server in guiding the chalice to your lips.

If you do not wish to receive communion you are invited to come forward to receive a blessing, indicating your desire by crossing your arms over your chest.

Congregational Voice

“Blessed Lord, who hast caused all holy Scriptures to be written for our learning: Grant that we may in such wise hear them, read, mark, learn and inwardly digest them, that by patience and comfort of thy holy Word, we may embrace and ever hold fast the blessed hope of everlasting life, which thou hast given us” (Collect for The Second Sunday in Advent). I really don’t have a favorite Bible verse but this collect is my favorite. It’s my favorite collect because it was one of the first things my teacher taught me during my first few lessons on piano. This collect is sort of a mantra to go by. —Malik Jardine, Guest Organist

FLOWERS

To donate flowers, email Flowers@trinitywallstreet.org.

This service conforms to The Holy Eucharist: Rite Two, which begins on page 355 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Scripture readings are appointed by the Revised Common Lectionary (RCL) and are excerpted from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible. Other liturgical elements may include materials compiled by Trinity Church staff (TCWS) from publications including Women's Uncommon Prayers (WUP), Enriching Our Worship (EOW), and contemporary liturgical resources. An asterisk (*) denotes that the text is adapted from the original source material. Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982, Lift Every Voice and Sing II (LEVAS), and Wonder, Love, and Praise (WLP).  In an effort to reach a broad audience, Trinity Church Wall Street live streams its services and events and records them for broadcast via the internet. Your attendance at a service or event constitutes your consent to be included in any filming, photographing, audio recording, or broadcast and for any other use in whole or in part, including publicity and promotion. If you wish to attend but prefer to avoid being filmed, please sit in the back pews on the side aisles.

 Sunday parking validation for Battery Parking Garage (Greenwich Street) is available for parishioners. Please see security staff at the Trinity Church gate entrance or the 76 Trinity Place lobby between 8:00am and 3:30 pm to receive a validation stamp.

 As part of Trinity Wall Street's commitment to responsible stewardship of the earth's resources, this publication is printed on paper that is manufactured with 30% sustainable recycled content.

 Assistive Listening devices are available for this service and are located at the welcome table.
