

4. Fear and panic spread throughout the city; it was time for Jesus to go. The man begged to leave with him. "You must stay here," Jesus said. "Rejoin your community and tell everyone what God has done." So the man did.

3. The demons flew out of the man into a herd of pigs nearby causing the pigs to run into the lake. The farmers were confused and terrified. They ran into the city and told everyone what had happened to their pigs.

1. When Jesus and the disciples arrived on the shores of Gerasenes, Jesus noticed a man outside the city. He was naked and hungry, exhausted and stressed. Jesus saw the chaos and pain swirling inside the man and had compassion.

2. Jesus came near and asked, "What is your name?" A chorus of voices cried out from inside the man, "Legion!" The man needed help. He was alone, afraid, and couldn't control the demons, so Jesus commanded the chaos to leave.
