2. The kingdom of God is different from other kingdoms where people store up riches and fancy things. A collection of things can be stolen or spoiled, or eaten up by moths. But God’s kingdom cannot be destroyed.

3. Jesus tells the disciples to give their possessions to people who go without and make space for blessings that cannot be taken away or ruined. Be ready to receive the treasures of God’s kingdom.

4. Jesus explained that if you want to know what is important to someone, look at their treasures. Our special treasures show what we truly value, or where our “heart” is.
