

3. As John baptized Jesus, Jesus came up from the water, and the skies suddenly opened. He saw God's Spirit come down like a dove and land on him.

4. As this happened, a voice from the heavens said, "This is my Son, the Beloved, with whom I am well pleased."

2. Jesus answered John, "Yes, you should baptize me now. It's right for us to do it this way." Hearing this, John agreed to baptize Jesus.

1. Jesus traveled from Galilee to the Jordan River. He wanted John the Baptist, his cousin, to baptize him. John tried to stop him asking, "I should be baptized by you, but you want to be baptized by me instead?"
