

2. The people trusted Jesus because of how he treated them. When Jesus saw the growing crowds, he went up to the top of a mountain. He sat down and gave a sermon to his disciples.

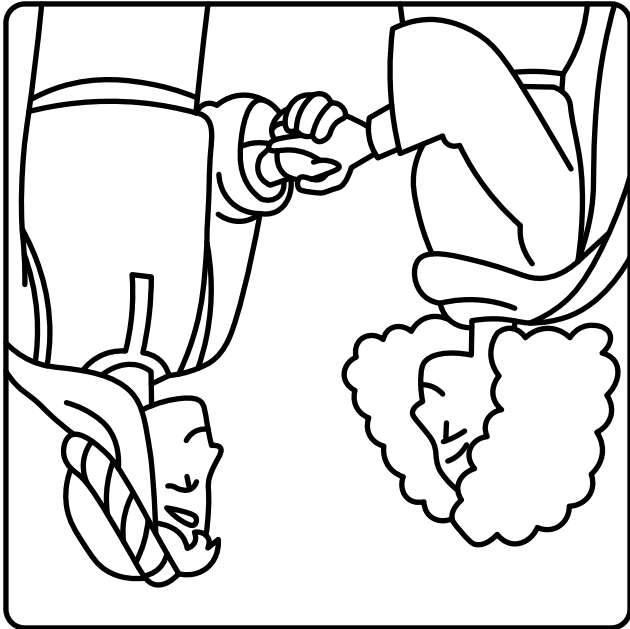

Matthew 5:23-24

1. As Jesus traveled throughout Galilee, he taught in synagogues, proclaimed the good news about God's love, and helped people who were sick. Crowds surrounded Jesus everywhere he went because people wanted to meet him.

3. One thing Jesus taught them was if you're leaving an offering for God but remember a friend is upset with you, stop and try to make things right with your friend first. After you repair things, you can leave your offering.

4. Jesus continued his message, telling them about the people God blesses, how they can do God's work in the world, how to treat one another, and more. He taught them about how God wanted them to live.
